Varsity Swimmers
Smash WPI, 72-14; Windle Sets Record

In what was hardly a contest, the varsity swim team realized one of its most notable matches of the season Saturday against WPI to win 72-14. John Windle ’60, Tom Essene ’61, and Bob Brooker ’59 were the meet’s outstanding performers. Windle spoiled through the 100-yard freestyle in 54.0 seconds, breaking by 0.1 second the varsity record he had just recently set. The 440-yard freestyle provided the biggest surprise of the meet. Tom Essene ’61, probably the most versatile swimmer Tech has ever seen, streamed home in 1:33.0-less than a second off the varsity record—in only his third attempt at the distance.

Bob Brooker ’59, establishing his switch from the distance freestyle to the sprinters, won the 100-yard freestyle in 24.5 and whirled through the first leg of the free relay in a very good 55.7.

The 200-yard breaststroke saw one of the closest races of the evening. Eric Essene ’61 and Jim Knoedler ’61 finished a close second, Essene in 2:40.0 and Knoedler only a few strokes behind. Dave Callander ’59, the team’s most consistent winner, took an easy first in diving, giving Tech its most prolific nights of the season in a row.

Grad B House
The swimmers will be gunning for the season, as it is a preliminary to the meet held at MIT Friday and Saturday. The meet will be a great improvement over the last, as it is a preliminary to the Conference Championships, to be held at MIT Friday and Saturday. The swimmers will be gunning for records in the 100, 200 butterfly, and both relays.

Top Burton for Title

To no one’s surprise, Grad House topped the varsity swimmers in the regular season’s playoff records, Stigers and Senior House followed the top pair.

The victor over WPI brings the team’s most consistent winner, Eric Essene ’61 and Jim Knoedler only a few strokes behind. Dave Callander ’59, the team’s most consistent winner, took an easy first in diving, giving Tech its most prolific nights of the season in a row.

1...TRADITIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

As an Army officer, you’re in command of men. More men than the number supervised by many civilian executives years older than yourself. To meet your command responsibilities, you employ a great many of the LEADERSHIP principles acquired in advanced R.O.T.C. training. And your executive potential develops while you gather LEADERSHIP experience. The executive ability you gain as an Army officer will be an important advantage in any civilian career. That’s why employment directors often prefer men who have served as commissioned officers. These men have already proven their capacity to handle executive responsibility.

2...TRADITIONAL REWARDS

In every organization, greater responsibilities mean greater rewards. The traditional prestige of an Army officer is matched by material advantages. A second lieutenant earns a minimum of $355.88 per month—plus substantial fringe benefits. Think you might want to marry soon after graduation? An officer’s salary can make things a great deal easier for a married couple just starting out. What’s more, an Army officer is entitled to take his dependents with him, wherever possible. Imagine sharing the fun of travel with your wife—in the United States or foreign countries like France, Germany or Japan.

Do You Think for Yourself?

1. When you feel that certain fads are foolish do you talk against them? YES NO

2. Do gadgets such as new cigarette lighters often intrigue you so you want to take them apart? YES NO

3. Do you think that political candidates should write their own speeches instead of using a “ghost writer”? YES NO

4. Given the choice, would you prefer having an apartment of your own to living at home with your parents? YES NO

5. Do you prefer a salesman who is anxious to make a quick sale to one who will patiently answer all your questions about the product? YES NO

6. When arriving late for a party, are you insistent to join a group of close friends rather than trying to strike up new acquaintances? YES NO

7. If you met somebody with a beard, would you consider him “off-putting” and treat him with reserve? YES NO

8. Are you normally reluctant to go on a “blind date”? YES NO

9. Do you base your choice of a cigarette on what people tell you rather than doing your own thinking? YES NO

You’ll notice that men and women who think for themselves usually insist on smoking VICEROY. Their reason? They’ve made a thinking choice. They know what they want in a filter cigarette. They know that VICEROY gives it to them! A thinking man’s filter and a smoking man’s taste!

*If you have answered “YES” to three or four questions and “NO” to four or out of the last five . . . you really think for yourself!
