Now... it's the

old summertime
since you've discovered

HASPEL
Sir Perior

Gone are the days of sweltering summer suits.
Gone, too, are old-fashioned lightweight suits that wrinkled and bagged in humid weather.
Now you have Haspel Sir Perior, the remarkable wash and wear suit of a light-as-air blend of Dacron* and nylon.

Sir Perior is a thinking man's filter and the whole thing? (c) tip him and walk your date home?

2. You are making a speech—and suddenly find you have a large hole in your clothes. Would you (A) fix yourself or leave? (B) pretend you didn't know the hole was there and finish the speech? (C) cover up the hole with a handkerchief?

3. Would you rather have the characteristics of (A) U.S. Grant; (B) Thomas Edison; (C) J. F. Morgan?

4. You have taken your date to dinner and find you haven't any money to tip the waiter as well as take your date home. Would you (A) ignore the waiter? (B) take him aside and tell him you'll tip him that day? (C) tip him and walk your date home?

5. Mathematics is your poorest subject, yet you are fascinated by the idea of being an aeronautic physi-

6. Your roommate is a nice person, but suddenly starts to assert an ability to foresee the future.
Would you (A) try to overcome your difficulties or (B) pick an easier occupation? (C) ask yourself if it's physics you like or its glamour?

7. Do you believe the maxim "It's a long lane that has no turning" is (A) a complete nonsensical claim? (B) the same as a well-known fact? (C) an allusion to a common phenomenon?

8. Would you rather have as a birthday present (A) something expensive? (B) something long-lasting? (C) something beautiful?

9. In choosing a filter cigarette, would you (A) prefer the taste? (B) give it a try? (C) give it a second thought? (D) merely says it tastes good? (E) give it a second thought? (F) give it a third thought?
