On Campus with Mac Shuman

FASTER, FASTER!
College enrollment continues to spiral upward. The need for more classrooms and more teachers grows more desperate daily. But classrooms, also, do not spring up like mushrooms—or teachers like May flies. The day will come when we build more classrooms and train more teachers. We must get better use out of the classrooms and teachers we now have. That’s what we must do.

This column, normally a vehicle of good-humored frolic, will today forsake laughter to examine the crisis in higher education. My sources, the makers of Philip Morris Cigarettes, as busy a bunch of epigons as you will see in a month of Sundays, have given cheerless counsel to this departure. Oh, splendid boys and girls!—the makers of Philip Morris, fond of home, mother, perogies, the Constitution and country fiddling! Twinkly and engaging they are; as full of joy, as brimming with goodness, as loaded with felicity as the cigarettes they bring you in too handy packages—the traditional soft pack and the0oothproof flip-top box.

How can we make better use of existing campus facilities? The answer can be given in one word—speedup! Speed up the educational process—streamline courses. Eliminate frills. Sharpen.
