FOR WHOM THE BELLES TOIL

It was dark in the little sleeping bag, Miguel pulled off one boot. He pulled off the other boot. His mind was on the beer. Not far off, the colorful tores were strumming on their marchetas. The wind was restless in the trees. He thought of the beer.

"I will have the Schaefer now. The bear."

Teresa brought it to him. "What do you hear in the best of circles?" she asked. "Schaefer all around!" he said. It was a little ritual they had between them. It was a very good ritual. She always did it correctly—real the bear. "How does it?" she said. She was blushing.

"It does well. It is of the palate. It is of the throat."

"Has it a smooth round flavor?"

"It has a smooth round flavor."

"What does round mean?" She was afraid he would think her mind.

"Round means never sharp, round means never flat."

"The Schaefer bear round," she smiled.

"I drink to you, mi vida," he said.

"I drink to you, chisipito," she said.

They were quiet together, thinking of the Schaefer. Somewhere the conquistadores began to sing softly. The time of the Schaefer was a good time.

FACTOR, SUM, SAVE.
