Delta Upsilon Takes IM Wrestling; Capture Third First to Win Easily

Capturing three first places in the seven divisions, Delta Upsilon easily won the intramural wrestling championships Friday and Saturday evening in the Rockefeller Cafe. The DUCs also had a third and a fourth to help boost their total to 106 points. The nearest team was Sigma Chi's 83, while defending titans Delta Tau Delta tied for ninth spot in the team competition.

Among the heaviest weight classes, New London's mening Giorgio Emo, proved to be the best of the unlimited division. Delta's John Crissman, '61, who had won this division last fall. Runner-up Sigma Chi had a pair of champions by taking the 157 and 177 pound crowns. The former division was won by M. Williams, '62, who topped New London's, '62, of East Campus, while Kendall, '63, defeated Delta Tau Delta's John Creelman, '63, in the last round of the 177 pound competition.

H. Graves, '62, of Sigma Nu edged Charles Sparks, '62, of Sigma Alpha Epsilon '61 in the 147 pound close-out, and Phi Delta Theta's Hay Landa, '61, proved to be the best of the unlimited weight wrestor with Roger Gerstafeld, '62, of Pi Lambda Phi runner-up.