 COMMITTEE CRITICIZES HOUSEMASTER SYSTEM

An apparent student malaise with the functioning of the housemaster system in Senior House came to a head last week in a meeting between the Senior House Committee and the housemaster of Senior House, Dr. John Goodman.

At this meeting, Senior House President, stated in Pravda, the official newspaper of Senior House, that there is a complete lack of understanding for Dr. Goodman's position as housemaster.

He pointed out that the system should benefit everyone and has not. He was, however, very positive about the future of the system and stated, "The House Resident System is a perfect example of how a system can be made to work if we choose; and the other instance is that since it was meant to have a real benefit for everyone, the Institute is wasting money, time, and effort, and is building up a system that is not needed.

IFC Recorders

Undisclosed Penalty; Trophies Awarded

In last week's meeting the IFC car- ried on a two-thirds majority ap- peal by a fraternity to reconsider a penalty involving a violation of specific rushing privileges next Sep- tember. Previously, the IFC investiga- tory committees had decided to re- strict the rushing privileges of the house after it was accused of "rushing" another fraternity.

When asked why IFC could not denuce the name of the guilty frac- turo, its crimes, or the penalty, the IFC recorder, stated that those informa- tion had been withheld.

At the time we went to press, the IFC had received the appeal, but no decision had been made.
