The Public Relations Committee is re-writing its old constitution to fit its present activities.

The present president of the 15 man PRC headed by Tom Benston, will include such as the Activities Calendar, such as the Student Council and the Freshman Basketball team, which introduces every freshman to his classmates. The PRC supervises the Junior Prom Queen contest and the Freshmen-Freshman games. It operates a newspaper information service, which provides a quick source of news for students, faculty, and visitors. The Student Council is re-writing its old constitution. The new constitution, when completed, will accurately describe the activities of the present Public Relations Committee.

The PRC won a $500 Compton Award last spring for "Efficient Undergraduate Publicity." Most of the activities of the PRC are self-maintaining, though some, such as the Activities Calendar, are financed by the students.

The Public Relations Committee is re-writing its old constitution to fit its present activities.