The Tech

Page 3

Music at MIT, From Tom Lehrer to the Messiah

"Messiah" in Original, Uncut Version

The original version of Handel's "Messiah" will be presented by the MIT Choral Society and Symphony Orchestra on December 5 and 6, in Kresge Auditorium. Directed by Klaus Liepmann, the 18-man choral group will sing from the "exact," that is to say, the original version of the oratorio, including choruses seldom heard and omitting widely used orchestrations by Franz and Mozart.

Tickets for the performances will be $2.00, $3.00, and $3.50 at Kresge Auditorium, Cambridge 39, or by calling UN 4-6900, Extension 2902.

Litton is Soloist in Symphony Concert

The MIT Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of John Corley, will present its first concert of the season tomorrow evening at 8:00, in Kresge Auditorium.

The program will include the "Gloria" in Latin by Rossini, the Lieutenant Kije Overture by Prokofiev, and the Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers, and Gerald Moore.

TOBACCO AND TASTE TOO FINE TO FILTER!

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco.

LUCY STRIKE presents

Bew... Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH

Breast is the soul of wit. Which is why the sight of a girl in a Bikini invariably brings a smile to a man's face.

Dear Dr. Frood, Ph.T.T.

Dear Dr. Frood: I read a great deal so I do not have time for girls. Am I missing anything? Literate

Dear Dr. Frood: I salute you, Your highness. What do you say? Literate

Dear Dr. Frood: [Redacted]

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a young woman, and I am interested in you. I would like to know if you are interested in me. Could you please respond? [Redacted]

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think next year's dress will cover your knees? Clothes-Concealer

Dear Dr. Frood: You would seem to be the logical choice.

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think a boy should kiss a girl on their first date? Shy

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a college student, and I am interested in you. I would like to know if you are interested in me. Could you please respond? [Redacted]

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think next year's dress will cover the knees? Clothes-Concealer

Dear Shy: We would seem to be the logical choice.

DOCTOR, FROOD ON QUERIES

Years of experience have taught me never to ask a girl these questions:

Shouldn't we skip the piano?

What happened to the fountain pen?

Just because you're pretty.

What is your name?

How can you be sure they live?

Why don't you smoke your own Luckies?

Dear Dr. Frood: Are you an un-used Lucky?

Dear Dr. Frood: When I refuse to go out with unattractive girls, my friends say, "Beauty is only skin-deep." What do you say? Fuzzy

Dear Fuzzy: That's deep enough.

East Campus Votes To Keep Constitution; No Ouster Planned

The East Campus reform movement is dead. The last effort to change the makeup of the House Committee failed last Wednesday night. The motion to amend the Constitution to remove the votes of all non-directly elected members failed as predicted in the Tech two weeks ago. In a meeting attended by about one half house, parliamentary maneuvering including a move to confer Robert's Rules of Order, the last possibility of ending Turry Welch, 60, as House President was defeated. Passage of the amendment would have been widely regarded as a slap at Welch, who is alleged by a majority of the members affected as to be his close associate.

It now appears that there will be no further attempts at changing the EC rule book as the term is quite likely. However, the elections in March will see a contest between present supporters of Welch, and those of Bill Rain, 61, leader of the dissident group.

Customers want clean cars, Car Washers say

All A Folk & Country Music Jamboree

Saturday November 11, 1959

JORDAN HALL

Tickets: $3.50 and $2.25

Organ Recital Given in Chapel Sunday

Dr. Frood's moral of the month

Breast is the soul of wit. Which is why the sight of a girl in a Bikini invariably brings a smile to a man's face.

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think next year's dress will cover the knees? Clothes-Concealer

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think a boy should kiss a girl on their first date? Shy

Dear Dr. Frood: You would seem to be the logical choice.

DOCTOR, FROOD ON QUERIES

Years of experience have taught me never to ask a girl these questions:

Shouldn't we skip the piano?

What happened to the fountain pen?

Just because you're pretty.

What is your name?

How can you be sure they live?

Why don't you smoke your own Luckies?

Dear Dr. Frood: Are you an un-used Lucky?

Dear Dr. Frood: When I refuse to go out with unattractive girls, my friends say, "Beauty is only skin-deep." What do you say? Fuzzy

Dear Fuzzy: That's deep enough.

East Campus Votes To Keep Constitution; No Ouster Planned

The East Campus reform movement is dead. The last effort to change the makeup of the House Committee failed last Wednesday night. The motion to amend the Constitution to remove the votes of all non-directly elected members failed as predicted in The Tech two weeks ago. In a meeting attended by about one half house, parliamentary maneuvering including a move to confer Robert's Rules of Order, the last possibility of ending Turry Welch, 60, as House President was defeated. Passage of the amendment would have been widely regarded as a slap at Welch, who is alleged by a majority of the members affected as to be his close associate.

It now appears that there will be no further attempts at changing the EC rule book as the term is quite likely. However, the elections in March will see a contest between present supporters of Welch, and those of Bill Rain, 61, leader of the dissident group.

Customers want clean cars, Car Washers say

All A Folk & Country Music Jamboree

Saturday November 11, 1959

JORDAN HALL

Tickets: $3.50 and $2.25

Organ Recital Given in Chapel Sunday

Dr. Frood's moral of the month

Breast is the soul of wit. Which is why the sight of a girl in a Bikini invariably brings a smile to a man's face.

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think next year's dress will cover the knees? Clothes-Concealer

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think a boy should kiss a girl on their first date? Shy

Dear Dr. Frood: You would seem to be the logical choice.

DOCTOR, FROOD ON QUERIES

Years of experience have taught me never to ask a girl these questions:

Shouldn't we skip the piano?

What happened to the fountain pen?

Just because you're pretty.

What is your name?

How can you be sure they live?

Why don't you smoke your own Luckies?

Dear Dr. Frood: Are you an un-used Lucky?

Dear Dr. Frood: When I refuse to go out with unattractive girls, my friends say, "Beauty is only skin-deep." What do you say? Fuzzy

Dear Fuzzy: That's deep enough.

EAST VOTES TO KEEP CONSTITUTION; NO OUSTER PLANNED

The East Campus reform movement is dead. The last effort to change the makeup of the House Committee failed last Wednesday night. The motion to amend the Constitution to remove the votes of all non-directly elected members failed as predicted in The Tech two weeks ago. In a meeting attended by about one half house, parliamentary maneuvering including a move to confer Robert's Rules of Order, the last possibility of ending Turry Welch, 60, as House President was defeated. Passage of the amendment would have been widely regarded as a slap at Welch, who is alleged by a majority of the members affected as to be his close associate.

It now appears that there will be no further attempts at changing the EC rule book as the term is quite likely. However, the elections in March will see a contest between present supporters of Welch, and those of Bill Rain, 61, leader of the dissident group.

Customers want clean cars, Car Washers say

All A Folk & Country Music Jamboree

Saturday November 11, 1959

JORDAN HALL

Tickets: $3.50 and $2.25

Organ Recital Given in Chapel Sunday

Dr. Frood's moral of the month

Breast is the soul of wit. Which is why the sight of a girl in a Bikini invariably brings a smile to a man's face.

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think next year's dress will cover the knees? Clothes-Concealer

Dear Dr. Frood: Do you think a boy should kiss a girl on their first date? Shy

Dear Dr. Frood: You would seem to be the logical choice.

DOCTOR, FROOD ON QUERIES

Years of experience have taught me never to ask a girl these questions:

Shouldn't we skip the piano?

What happened to the fountain pen?

Just because you're pretty.

What is your name?

How can you be sure they live?

Why don't you smoke your own Luckies?

Dear Dr. Frood: Are you an un-used Lucky?

Dear Dr. Frood: When I refuse to go out with unattractive girls, my friends say, "Beauty is only skin-deep." What do you say? Fuzzy

Dear Fuzzy: That's deep enough.

EAST VOTES TO KEEP CONSTITUTION; NO OUSTER PLANNED

The East Campus reform movement is dead. The last effort to change the makeup of the House Committee failed last Wednesday night. The motion to amend the Constitution to remove the votes of all non-directly elected members failed as predicted in The Tech two weeks ago. In a meeting attended by about one half house, parliamentary maneuvering including a move to confer Robert's Rules of Order, the last possibility of ending Turry Welch, 60, as House President was defeated. Passage of the amendment would have been widely regarded as a slap at Welch, who is alleged by a majority of the members affected as to be his close associate.

It now appears that there will be no further attempts at changing the EC rule book as the term is quite likely. However, the elections in March will see a contest between present supporters of Welch, and those of Bill Rain, 61, leader of the dissident group.