Polaroid Names Killian Director

Merry Christmas

Last Thursday Polaroid Corporation of Cambridge announced its election of Dr. James K. Killian, Jr. as a consultant director. President of Polaroid, Dr. Edwin H. Land, said of the election: "Dr. Killian brings to the Board long experience in the organization and administration of scientific and educational institutions."

The Polaroid Corporation, with headquarters in Cambridge, produces a wide range of scientific equipment and is one of the leading companies in the electronics industry.

LSC to Present Pops Conductor

Arthur Fiedler, conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra, will hold an open forum on Tuesday, December 10, at 8:30 P.M. in Kresge Auditorium. Mr. Fiedler is appearing at MIT under the auspices of the Institute for the first time.

No tickets are planned for this forum, nor are any of the usual min.

Raymond Ferguson and his Orchestra have been booked for the Friday night formal on May 6.

The anticipated changes are expected to reflect recent discussions concerning the future of the Band and the Band's role in the University.

Since the September Investigative Committee has met to consider two issues in the IFC, one involving a charge that a pledge from Delta Tau Delta had been sent out during Bush Week without his pledge pin to rush him, and the other involving charges that an additional 25 dollars was not paid to the IFC Investigating Committee.

The second announced violation of the IFC rules was a failure of the Investigative Committee to accord the Band of Hospital in violations of IFC Rushing Rules.

On Friday, December 10, at 8:45 P.M. in Kresge Auditorium, the Investigative Committee will be asked by the charge that the changes would be brought up at the next IFC meeting.

Senior House Men Celebrate Christmas

On Saturday night the Institute's House was the scene of the Society's Christmas party. The party in the new Vannevar Bush Hall was attended by about 50 members, including President and Mrs. Killian.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by a four-piece orchestra which played both dance music and Christmas carols.

Danish Composer to Appear Here

Tonight at 8:30, in Kresge Auditorium, Ylen Videro, well-known Danish orchestra conductor, will present a program of music written by works from late 19th and early 20th century composers. His program will be: "Intermezzo" by Bindi; "Waltz" by Buxtehude; "Offertoire sur les Grands Jeux in G Major" by Couperin; "Veni veni messias" by Handel; "Dona nobis pacem" by Mozart; "Winter Nacht" by Strauss; "Fugue and Fugato in A Minor" by Bach; "Symphony in C Major", "Chaconne in E Minor"; "Paganini Caprices" by Paganini; and "Rhapsody on Hungarian Folk Themes" by Brahms.

Mr. Videro, known for his organ and harpsichord recordings is presently on tour with the BBC. He is the first of these organ recitalists who will appear in Cambridge under the sponsorship of the MIT Humanities Department.

Future programs will include Andre Marchand on March 8 and Lawrence Meyer on May 5. Single tickets at $2.00 or series subscriptions at $4.00 are available from the Kresge Auditorium ticket office, Extension 5002.

IFC Weekend Planning Begins

Plans for IFC Weekend 1960 are underway. At last Thursday night's IFC meeting by B. Druklej, '61, Chairmen--Brought up motions concerning the Band and the Band's role in the University.

No tickets are planned for this forum, nor are any of the usual min.

Raymond Ferguson and his Orchestra have been booked for the Friday night formal on May 6.

The anticipated changes are expected to reflect recent discussions concerning the future of the Band and the Band's role in the University.

Since the September Investigative Committee has met to consider two issues in the IFC, one involving a charge that a pledge from Delta Tau Delta had been sent out during Bush Week without his pledge pin to rush him, and the other involving charges that an additional 25 dollars was not paid to the IFC Investigating Committee.

The second announced violation of the IFC rules was a failure of the Investigative Committee to accord the Band of Hospital in violations of IFC Rushing Rules.

On Friday, December 10, at 8:45 P.M. in Kresge Auditorium, the Investigative Committee will be asked by the charge that the changes would be brought up at the next IFC meeting.

Senior House Men Celebrate Christmas

On Saturday night the Institute's House was the scene of the Society's Christmas party. The party in the new Vannevar Bush Hall was attended by about 50 members, including President and Mrs. Killian.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by a four-piece orchestra which played both dance music and Christmas carols.

Danish Composer to Appear Here

Tonight at 8:30, in Kresge Auditorium, Ylen Videro, well-known Danish orchestra conductor, will present a program of music written by works from late 19th and early 20th century composers. His program will be: "Intermezzo" by Bindi; "Waltz" by Buxtehude; "Offertoire sur les Grands Jeux in G Major" by Couperin; "Veni veni messias" by Handel; "Dona nobis pacem" by Mozart; "Winter Nacht" by Strauss; "Fugue and Fugato in A Minor" by Bach; "Symphony in C Major", "Chaconne in E Minor"; "Paganini Caprices" by Paganini; and "Rhapsody on Hungarian Folk Themes" by Brahms.

Mr. Videro, known for his organ and harpsichord recordings is presently on tour with the BBC. He is the first of these organ recitalists who will appear in Cambridge under the sponsorship of the MIT Humanities Department.

Future programs will include Andre Marchand on March 8 and Lawrence Meyer on May 5. Single tickets at $2.00 or series subscriptions at $4.00 are available from the Kresge Auditorium ticket office, Extension 5002.