Swimmers Whip UMass 60-26
Schrade Breaks Frosh Record

Tech's varsity swimming team won all but two events Saturday in scoring a 60-26 victory over the University of Massachusetts at Alumni Pool. Although varsity records were broken, it has been the case in recent weeks, one freshman mark fell as the Beavers topped the Engineers in the existing 100-yard freestyle mark by one-tenth of a second with his 44.8 performance. The old record was held by present varsity captain John Windsle, '60, who now holds the varsity mark of 44.0.

Ising, West Set Pace
Tom Ising, '61, and Barnett West, '60, each combined a winning medley relay leg with individual victories to lead the MIT assault. Ising was just two-tenths of a second over the present mark in the 100-yard butterfly with 1:01.3.

West, who last week tied the New England Intercollegiate 200-yard breaststroke record with a 2:26.2, did it again, hardly won same event Saturday.

Engeler Wins 440
Joe Engeler, '62, capped the 440-yard freestyle with a 1:01.3 performance, seven-tenths over the varsity record. Captain Windsle turned in a 1:41.4 in the 100-yard freestyle.

Both the varsity and freshmen will be in action again tonight against Brown University. Last Saturday the Bruins dropped both games the Hoosiers battled with 6-0, 26-1 victory over Phi Gamma Delta. The varsity will compete in the Greater New England Intercollegiate 200-yard breaststroke.

The Tech varsity track team was edged by New Hampshire; 4-0, Saturday lost to the University of Massachusetts at Alumni Pool. Although varsity captain John Windle, '60, who now holds the varsity mark of 5:40.1 in the 1000-yard run.

Don Morrison, '61, was top pointgetter for the Beavers in high jump, high and low hurdles. Other Tech winners were Bill Johnson, '60, in the 110-pound weightlifting and Nate Litvack, '49, in the pole vault.

Bill Salani and Tom Odderlin with 11 points each and Chris Elsey and Dave Hester with six, were the ones for the freshmen as they captured their team's record to 3-2.

UConn Meet Thursday
Both teams head back into action Monday night at Rockwell Cage and the University of Connecticut that will be the fourth meet in days for the varsity. The following week, on March 20, the Tech team will compete in the Greater New England Track Championships at Tufts University Cape.
