Humanities Has Talks, Displays

College Twenty-two majors will give brief talks to parents at half-hour intervals starting at ten in the Hayden Library Lounge. Fine arts displays at the Institute will be featured.

Professor Ray Larson, Head of the Department of Humanities, will speak on “Humanities at a Technical Institution” at Faculty Club bandstand at 12:30.

Following the luncheon both from the Tushy Rogers Collection will be exhibited in the Humanities Library. Original manuscripts of American author Kenneth Roberts may be found in the main corridor, first floor Building 44.

Participating in the student talks in Hayden Library Lounge will be William Hines, Kenneth Freeman, Daniel Whitney, George Bedell and Robert Rothstein.

The staff of Department of Humanities and Modern Languages will be present in 14E-310 for conference throughout the afternoon and coffee will be served at 4:30.

WTBS
Brings Your Special
Features First
Before They Happen

DREAMING OF VACATIONS?

It's all right to dream of vacations, but it's wise for all juniors to start planning ahead to what you are going to do for graduation.

We suggest you consider working for Public Service Electric and Gas Company in New Jersey for your free copy.

For Rent in Arlington

Price is Right

Life Insurance has always been a good buy for men, women and children age 10 days to 70 years. Now, in amounts from $2,000 to $25,000 for the greatest protection, we can offer the world's greatest savings for those who need $2,000 or more protection. Even lower rates have been adopted on many "economy-size" policies. Ask for new rate folder showing kinds, rates and benefits for all ages.

The MIT Choral Society: Klaus Lepper, conductor will present:

Bauhinger, Easter Oratorio (unaccustomed conducting) Sunday, April 24, 1960 at 3:00 P.M.

Kammerchor: Studto

Ludwig, Johannes, Opus 203, Ruth Sullivan, Allegro

Dow Jones, bass-baritone

David Ashton, tenor-baritone

Tickets $2.00 (reserved) and $1.50 (unreserved) may be ordered from MIT Music Office or by calling UN 4-6900, ext. 3210.

For This Today:

Send for this today. Write for the informative brochure "Training Courses for College Graduates". Write Public Service, BD Park Place, Room 2150, Newark, N. J. for your free copy.

Econ. Ind. Management Fete

Dedication of the Barnard Room will highlight Course Fifteen activities. At three p.m. in Building 52, an undergraduate lounge will be formally opened and dedicated to Miss Olive Barnard.

Miss Barnard was secretary of Course Fifteen for many years. Preceding at the dedication will be Pro- fessor Emeritus Erwin H. Schell, Dean Emeritus Edward F. Brooks, Professor Howard Johnson, and David Nuss, '61, President of the Undergraduate Industrial Management Association.

After lunch at the Faculty Club, Faculty of the department of Econ- omics will hold a coffee hour, start- ing at 2:30 in 19-341. A panel dis- cussion featuring general review of Course Fifteen undergraduate curricula will be held in the Purchase by industrial management majors at 3:00.

Leading the panel discussion on the Teaching of Industrial Management will be Professors Houlder Hudgins, Gordon Schilling, Edward Row- man and Samuel Pullman.

Other topics to be discussed will include: marketing, finance, production, and business policy.

Men who face wind and weather... choose the protection of...
Old Spice
AFTER SHAVE
LOTION

Skin protection. That is. Old Spice astringes and stimulates, guards against the loss of vital skin moisture. Feels great, too. Brick, beating with that tangy Old Spice scent. It does seem to attract female admirers, but what red-blooded man needs protection against girls?

1.06 -

Men who face wind and weather... choose the protection of...