Kirk is 2nd In New England Monotype Sailing

MIT's George Kirk, '60, placed second behind John Wuestneck of Coast Guard Sunday in the finals of the fourth annual New England monotype sailing championships, thereby qualifying for a berth in the Eastern Olympian monotype semifinals in early July. Kirk was just two points behind Wuestneck, 97 to 95, in the two-day meeting which served as a first round Olympic eliminations.

Nine events, including two relays and three individual events, were run off Sunday afternoon on Briggs Field, IIM track manager Chuck Nagle, '60, reported. Leading SAC to its golf triumph were Jim Cassetis, '63, and George Kimmes, '63, with '82, and Pete Thur- \nt;w, with an 88. Baker House was second in the competition supervised by IIM golf manager Claron Anderson, '62.

Remaining in contention for the squash championship were Alpha Epsilon Pi, Baker House "A", Eot Cam- pes and Sigma Chi.

The track summaries:

The Eastern Olympic trials will be- come in Marblehead on July 5th. Pat- tern that will be eight weeks of sail- ing to determine the United States Olympic entries. The requirement is a pho- tos to continue participation in these trials if successful at MIT will en- ced by a factor in keeping the field for last weekend's races of less than 30 men. Originally 14 colleges had 36 entries for some 35 skippers.
