The Tech

Techreuty ... Page 8

Frank Osha Wins UAP Election

A record number of 1,727 students participated in the UAP election on Tuesday, March 14. President Julius A. Stratton, as Vice President of the Class of 63, was elected. The president-elect position was determined by an overwhelming majority of over 900 votes. Runners-up were Walter A. Riesenblith, Elting E. Morison, and Martin Deutsch.

Convocation Scheduled

Entertainment

Closed Sessions Reports

As the students' formal observance of the MIT Centennial, a special convocation will be held on April 14 at Kingsley Auditorium during which the Class of 1861 will be presented. The conference will be attended by Dr. Jerome Wiener.

Operation Abolition: To Be Shown Today

The film is a commentary on the possibility of a nuclear war and its effects. The committee will conduct a discussion of the film, which will last 45 minutes. Mr. Fulcher, chairman of the committee, will conduct a question and answer session from 4:15 p.m.

Kahn To Speak On Nuclear War; Views Start Student Controversy

A war of words is scheduled for the physics lecture hall, 36-100, tomorrow night at 8 p.m. The controversy, involving RAND Corporation analyst and author, Herman Kahn, will be "On Thermonuclear War-Thinking about the Unthinkable" under the auspices of the Lecture Series Committee.

At Centennial

Las Vegas Night Success

Baker House residents and their dates enjoyed the thrill of losing thousands of dollars each in a house of games, roulette, blackjack, dice, poker, and other games of chance at "Las Vegas" last Saturday night.

---

INDEX

Vol. 81, No. 7

Cambridge, Mass., Wednesday, March 22, 1961

5 Cents