Entertainment-wise

Thurber Carnival Opening At Wilbur

By Dick Minniek '65

Lena Horne and her 9 o'clock revue opened this week at the Colonial. The satirical comedy sketch and nightclub personality head, a program of musical entertainment featuring the Whitman Boys, conducted DON Adams, dares Augie and March. This show will run through next week only.

One of the outstanding coming attractions is "A Thurber Carnival which opens at the Wilbur on November sixth. It has been billed by the New York Times as "the freshest and funniest show of the year." Comedy revue derived from the writings of humorist James Thurber, it stars Imagery, Hope, Arthur Treacher, and King Clod.

This is the final week for "Bye Bye Birdie" at the Shubert. The Great God Brown is shown at the Charles Playhouse, and "The Tenth Man" at the Wilbur.

* * *

The Lincensities, sophisticated folk song singers, will perform Friday night at the Hobby Hall. They consist of Louis Gottlieb, PhD student and nightclub personality, with the band; group; band; and tangoes Alex Hustler; and Glen Verbrugh, guitars and banjo.

The Community Church of Boston announced a series of folk concerts to be held at the Church Center, 56 Boylston Street, Copely Square. The opening concert will feature Jackie Washington, Boston's own folk singer, in a varied program of ballads, blues, and novelty songs Friday, November 5, at 8:30 p.m. Jackie is one of the most popular, sought-after folk singers in the local area, having entertained in most of the coffee shops and universities, as well as for a number of organizations.

* * *

An exhibition entitled "Greece: VI, V, IV Centuries" will be on view in the Hayden Gallery of MIT from November 6 through December 31. The gallery is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The exhibition has been planned by MIT's Museum Committee in conjunction with the Humanities Department and features photographic mural and ancient Greek sculpture and architecture. Amphiropos, foyers, and statues, which are on loan from the Boston Museum of Fine Arts collection, complete the exhibit of Greek art representing the Periclean peak of their civilization.

The Museum of Fine Arts in Boston is featuring several special exhibitions this month including "25 Centuries of Persian Art," "Boston Printmakers," and "American Watercolors and Drawings." Student admission is free, only twenty-five cents.

Louis Speyer, noted member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, will perform during the concert at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum on November 5th. The program consists of three selections each on the English horn and Oboe. Admission is free.

The Boston Music School is featuring the original German version of "Rosemary this week. "Come September," and "The Honey- moon Machine" are being featur- ed at the University.

* * *

The Dramashop will present its second evening of one act plays this Friday, November 5, at 8:30 p.m. in the Kneses Little Theater. The first play, "The Room," is a contemporary kitchen drama by Harold Tinter, featuring Carolyn Crawford as Rose. The second is a reading of a BBC radio play, "All That Fall," by Samuel Beckett, author of "Waiting for Godot," and starring Jean Toletino as Mrs. Rooney. There will be a critical and coffee hour afterwards. Admission is free.

Movie Schedule

SATURDAY NIGHT

"Has he to walk on his hands at every party!"

"Why do you keep look- ing at me like that, George?"

"Never go down there alone, Gladys—that's Fraternity Row!"

WHAT HAPPENS ON CAMPUS SATURDAY NIGHT? If you could peek into an average campus on Saturday night you would see students planning a hunger strike and smoking Luckies, ironing their Sunday suits and smoking Luckies, playing dominoes and smoking Luckies. College students smoke Luckies all the time—and more of them than any other regular cigarette. If you go to college, you should smoke Luckies. It's expected of you.

DOING IT THE HARD WAY by hoff

(GETTING RID OF DANDRUFF, THAT IS)

Easier 3-minute way for men: Fitch

Men, get rid of embarrassing dandruff easy as 1-2-3 with Fitch! In just 3 minutes (one rubbing, one lathering, one rinsing), every trace of dandruff, shine, gummy old hair roots goes right down the drain! Your hair looks hand- some, lustered. Your scalp tingles, feels so refreshed. Use Fitch Dandruff Remover SHAMPOO every week for positive dandruff control. Keep your hair and scalp really clean, dandruff-free!

FITCH LEADING MAN'S SHAMPOO

"LET'S step outside and have a smoke, baby!"

CHANCE TO LUCKIES

Lucky Striker presents:

Lucky Jokers

"Do you have to walk on his hands at every party?"

"You would see students planning a hunger strike and smoking Luckies, ironing their Sunday suits and smoking Luckies, playing dominoes and smoking Luckies. College students smoke Luckies all the time—and more of them than any other regular cigarette. If you go to college, you should smoke Luckies. It's expected of you."