preazed harder, and finally Bob Goetz '63 took a lead pass just beyond midfield and with a low kick scored the winning goal.

The 3-1 victory over the Coast Guard enabled MIT to finish the league season with the first place, seven wins, one loss, and one tie. The game was difficult for the Engineers, not because of the Cadet's skill with the ball, but because of their willingness to play the man.

Personal notes

The overtime was completely controlled by MIT, and Coast Guard, master of their own play, could not resist long, Jim Tork and Gord Olson '63 both scored to make the final score 3-1.

With the Army victory, MIT completed its fine soccer season of seven wins. Carl, Dick Bearbrooke '62 led a brilliant defensive effort, finishing in seven wins, one tie and two losses. The season began by upsetting Embry and Trinity, easily defeating WPI and Tufts, and then playing Middlebury to a tie in Vermont. The trip Air Force men with defeat lost, continuing home. MIT awaited DU, and then lost its only league game of the season to Springfield. The Coast Guard and Army victories completed the season.

The games, sparked with the colorful play of Bob Mehlman '64, who led the league with 13 goals, and the fine offensive support of Jim Tang and Cord Olson '63, worked well as a solid unit, perhaps more important was the fine coating by Charlie Battersman, who made an excellent team from a list of good players.

By Warren Anderson '65

Results of first round play in the Major Division intramural basketball indicate a strong battle for the championship, with several teams making particularly impressive showings.

In the American League, Bruce Anderson and Bill Goetz '63 led the Alpha Tau Omega 'A' team to a 44-27 win, over the Senior House 'A' team. ATO's strongest competition may well come from the winner of Friday night's game between Sigma Alpha Xi and the Burton House 'A' team. Both teams looked impressive in their first games.

Don Kuzee and Bill Bircher played fine ball in leading the Burton House team to a 45-36 victory over the Graduate Society. Sigma Alpha Xi beat the Graduate House 'B' team handily 50-23 behind the fine play of Ronnie Sachs and Art Sarnberg. The remaining game in the American League saw Lambda Chi Alpha defeating Pi Lambda Phi in a tight game, 21-18.

In the National League, the Old Guys and the Graduate House 'A' team looked like powers. The Old Guys defeated Beta Theta Pi by a score of 60-46, with Carl Swanson and Sam Wilson playing good ball, while Grad house defeated Sigma Chi by a score of 68-33.
