The Peabody's Theatre of Cambridge offers a unusual theatrical event when it presents Jules Feiffer and His Peeples next Sunday afternoon. The performance will include a talk by Mr. Feiffer, his new play, "Crawling Arnold"; his famous cartoon, "BOMBO!"; and a group of his new reviews, which will be presented in New York later this season. There will be one performance only, Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Sanders Theatre in Cambridge.

This week's LSC entertainment series program will be "The Magnificent Seven," starring Yul Brynner and Eli Wallach. The story involves a small Mexican town which has been continually threatened by bandit Eli Wallach. In desperation, the town hires Brynner and six other famous gunmen to defend the town. The

Says Pretty Boy, "Ecco Tareyton, one filter cigarette that really delivers du gustus. Try Tareyton. Next time you buy cigarettes, take a couple of packs vobiscum." By Tom Mangh Seven organize the village and teach the people how to fight and defend themselves, resulting in a successful defense against the bandit's next attack. However, the peace-loving farmers are frightened by the fighting, and easily fall victim to Wallach's threats, turning against their protectors and causing them to fall into a trap. The show, which also stars Steve McQueen and Horst Buchholz, will be shown in room 10-250 at 5:15, 7:30, and 9:45 Saturday night.

TV has very little to offer this week, but there are one or two promising shows tomorrow night. "Brinkley's Journal" will appear at 8:30 on channels 4, 6, and 30. On this segment, the NBC com-
