Dietrich In Classic Film Series Again

By Tom Maugh

Marlene Dietrich will make her second appearance of the term in the LSC classic film series, as she stars with James Stewart in the original film version of "Destry Rides Again." Stewart plays the quiet, lanky sheriff of a corrupt town, who tries to reform the town without the use of his six-gun. Miss Dietrich plays the part of a cafe entertainer, who is also Stewart's girlfriend.

Showings of the film, which will be given in room 10-230, will be at 8:30 and 9 Friday night.

---

Tod Alivace and Sylvia mars will appear at the Community Church of Boston Sunday night in an Evening of Greek and English Ballads, and a collection of Negro Spirituals and Blues. Miss Alivace has recorded for Prestige and Tradicion Records, and has appeared at most of the coffee houses in Boston and Cambridge. Miss Mars is one of the featured singers of the Folk Song Society of Greater Boston.

The concert, which begins at 8:15, will be held in the Church Art Center in Copley Square.

---

"Midnight Love" will be this week's feature in the LSC entertainment program. starring Bob Harrison, John Gavin, and Doris Day, the film is the story of an American heroine who is happily married to an English tycoon. However, her marriage is disrupted and she is sent back to England when she begins to receive threatening telephone calls in the middle of the night. Since no one else hears the phone calls, her husband and aunt begin to suspect that she is making them up to get more attention from her husband. However, subsequent events prove that there is a basis for her fears.

The film will be shown in room 10-250 Saturday night at 5:30, 7:30, and 9:45.

Next Sunday, Simonne Pierret, cellist, and Franciscue Pierret, pianist, will present a program of compositions by Francisco, Brahms, Mendelssohn, Chopin, and Bartok at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum.

Although they are well known in Europe, this is the Pierret's first appearance in Boston. They have won the award of the International Competition on Music Interpretation at Geneva, and have toured extensively throughout Europe and Africa.

---

Several good new films are coming to town this week. Among them are: "Summer and Smoke", the Tennessee Williams classic; "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse"; "Murder She Said", an Agatha Christie comedy; and "Loss of Innocence", with the new star, star, Susan York.

---

A new career

analytically minded

An analytical mind can carry you a long way in the fast-moving field of electronic data processing. If you have a flair for business... and enjoy solving tough problems... you can discover unique satisfaction in this new career.

Openings are available throughout the country in both large and small computer installations. And we have equal opportunities for men and women.

The marketing and application of data processing systems is challenging and fascinating. After your training you help management executives solve some of the problems which include automation of: process control and manufacturing operations, inventory control, document control, weather forecasting; and complete business control systems for utilities, transportation, banking, and insurance, to name but a few.

New techniques of automatic data processing are making headline news almost daily.

We have a critical need for those who have majored in science, mathematics, and engineering. And we have equal opportunities for men and women in business administration, economics, finance, and liberal arts with an aptitude and interest in electronic data processing.

It's a new professional field for both men and women in which earnings are high and promotions come quickly. For more information describing the opportunities at IBM, see your Career Placement Director or, if you desire, write or call---

MARCH 1, 2