M.I.T's wrestling team took second place among 11 teams competing in the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Association matches, held March 2-3 at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut. Bettered only by Springfield College, whose teams have dominated the tournament for the past 12 years, the Techmen produced two third-place and three fourth-place winners.

Ending his college wrestling career with a season record of 33-1, Jim Evans '62, wrestling at 227 pounds, won a second-place medal, edging out Don Cuff of Amherst, 11-0 and pinning John Winfield of Williams in the 11th minute of overtime, lasting only to last year's freshman champion, Joe Douilla of Coast Guard.

Tom Guertin '62 won a third-place medal by scoring the decisive pinning fall of Worcester Polytechnic Institute's Jacques Moore, 5-0. Guertin's only defeat came when he was decisioned 6-1 by last year's freshman champion, Stan McClesden of Springfield.

Taking a fourth-place award for his decision against Art towes of Wesleyan, 11-0, and Boff Wood of Amherst, 19-2, MIT's Armsen Gabrielian, wrestling at 123 pounds, was unsuccessful in his attempts against Jim Moody of Springfield, twice New England champion, 5-4, and Dartmouth's Elise Torbert, 3-5, in overtime.

Also a fourth-place medal winner, Paul O'Neil '62, wrestling at 167 pounds, won matches against Art Scooter of Amherst, 5-4, and Arthur Austin of Tufts, 7-4. Olin- steed's defeat led to a pin by Tom Lowwood of Wesley- am, last year's freshman champio- n, in the eighth minute, and a decision score by Bowe Dun- cavon of Dartmouth, 6-2.

Wrestling in the unlimited division, Kim Shost '64 also received fourth-place recognition. Pinned in the second minute by Matt Samson of Springfield, three times, N.E.I.W.A. champi- on, Shost went on to win by default over Dick Bell of Coast Guard after Bell seriously injur- ed his leg when Shost doused at him during an attempted takedown. Shost was pinned again in the second minute of a consolation heat against Lee Beteman of Dartmouth.

Meyer, Labousse Score in NSIRT

By Bostwick Wyman

George Meyer '62 lost three rounds, and Monroe La- bousse '62 won his first round match in a very strong Na- tional Intercollegiate Squash Ro- cee Tournament which ended last weekend. This performance earned the foursome against Sarnason White of Wesleyan, 7-3, and Leopold and Mag- is, and yielding in the finals to Mike Rinn '63, and last year's freshman champion, 5-1.

Tom Guertin '62 earned a thir- d-place medal by scoring the decisive pinning fall of Worcester Polytechnic Insti- tute, 5-0, pinning Sturgeon Hostle of Tufts in the sixth minute of overtime. Dart- mouth's Jacques Moore, 5-0. Guertin's only defeat came when he was decisioned 6-1 by last year's freshman champion, Stan McClesden of Springfield.

Taking a fourth-place award for his decision against Art towes of Wesleyan, 11-0, and Boff Wood of Amherst, 19-2, MIT's Armsen Gabrielian, wrestling at 123 pounds, was unsuccessful in his attempts against Jim Moody of Springfield, twice New England champion, 5-4, and Dartmouth's Elise Torbert, 3-5, in overtime.

Also a fourth-place medal winner, Paul O'Neil '62, wrestling at 167 pounds, won matches against Art Scooter of Amherst, 5-4, and Meyer best Smith '3-0 in the top three matches. The Squash Team had a 13-10 record, winning from Wesleyan, Trinity, and Adelphi. They also had good scores against Penn and Williams. The all-around performance of Bob Magee and Paul Bugl was much better than last year, when MIT won only from Adelphi and Connecticut. (UCO has dis- continued Squash.)

Seven of the regular top nine squash players graduated this year, leaving Coach Ed Crocker with only two lettermen, Thomas Guillermo '64 and Paul Bugl '63.

Meyer best Smith '3-0 in the top three matches. The Squash Team had a 13-10 record, winning from Wesleyan, Trinity, and Adelphi. They also had good scores against Penn and Williams. The all-around performance of Bob Magee and Paul Bugl was much better than last year, when MIT won only from Adelphi and Connecticut. (UCO has dis- continued Squash.)

M.I.T.'s wrestling team took second place among 11 teams competing in the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Association matches, held March 2-3 at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut. Bettered only by Springfield College, whose teams have dominated the tournament for the past 12 years, the Techmen produced two third-place and three fourth-place winners.

Ending his college wrestling career with a season record of 33-1, Jim Evans '62, wrestling at 227 pounds, won a second-place medal, edging out Don Cuff of Amherst, 11-0 and pinning John Winfield of Williams in the 11th minute of overtime, lasting only to last year's freshman champion, Joe Douilla of Coast Guard.

Tom Guertin '62 won a third-place medal by scoring the decisive pinning fall of Worcester Polytechnic Institute's Jacques Moore, 5-0. Guertin's only defeat came when he was decisioned 6-1 by last year's freshman champion, Stan McClesden of Springfield.

Taking a fourth-place award for his decision against Art towes of Wesleyan, 11-0, and Boff Wood of Amherst, 19-2, MIT's Armsen Gabrielian, wrestling at 123 pounds, was unsuccessful in his attempts against Jim Moody of Springfield, twice New England champion, 5-4, and Dartmouth's Elise Torbert, 3-5, in overtime.

Also a fourth-place medal winner, Paul O'Neil '62, wrestling at 167 pounds, won matches against Art Scooter of Amherst, 5-4, and Meyer best Smith '3-0 in the top three matches. The Squash Team had a 13-10 record, winning from Wesleyan, Trinity, and Adelphi. They also had good scores against Penn and Williams. The all-around performance of Bob Magee and Paul Bugl was much better than last year, when MIT won only from Adelphi and Connecticut. (UCO has dis- continued Squash.)

Seven of the regular top nine squash players graduated this year, leaving Coach Ed Crocker with only two lettermen, Thomas Guillermo '64 and Paul Bugl '63.