Debaters Win Bid To National Meet

The MIT debate team of Glen Books '83 and Bill Morris '84 won an invitation to the National Debate Tournament by tying for second place at the District VIII Qualifying Tournament at Vermont. The tournament will be at West Point, April 25.

This year will mark MIT's fifth trip to the National tournament, the first since '82. MIT qualified with an 11-3 record, tying Boston College and St. John's, New York, and three ballots behind first place Holy Cross.

On their way MIT defeated Brandon, Vermont, and Farmhurt, splitting decisions with St. John's University College, 332, Emerson, St. John's of New York, and Eastern Massachusetts. Thirty-two Colleges and Universities from New York and New England participated in the tournament.

The MIT Debate Society also participated in the Notre Dame Invitational Tournament at Notre Dame, March 29-31. The team of John Castle and Steve Wanner, both 63, finished with a 3-3 record, finishing at the tournament.
