The first TV picture sent across the country using a balloon satellite consisted of the letters "MIT."