11

Teams Enter IM Finals

6 Teams Enter IM Finals

Aided action in IM softball but sixteen with sixteen
in the play-
game in the play-
but with sixteen

IM

IM

championships.

League VIII winner, Sigma Alpha Epsilon did not play last weekend.

League VIII winner, Sigma Alpha Epsilon did not play last weekend.

Golf Team Places 7th

In NE Championships,

Gamble Enters Finals

MIT's varsity golfers finished seventh out of a field of thirty schools Friday at the New Englands at UNH. They missed quali-ing for the finals as only the top five schools were selected. In individual play Chuck Gamble '62, qual ified along with fifteen other individuals for a match play elimination. However, he lost in the first round to Calvin Cook of Clark.

In the team totals the low four scorers on each team are combined and MIT's 338 was fifteen off the pace set by Tufts. Gamble's 78 was three above the low indi-dividual score of seventy-five.

League I Zeta Beta Theta, Du ke Gamma Delta, 5.9 for girls title. League II acepted Catholic Bible college the confirmed by whispering "A" 75.

Four in Division IV and V

in their season a week early did not compete this past at however. League VI set NIPM, finished with unished record by coming

the right side of a 25-25

Golf Team Places 7th

In NE Championships,

Gamble Enters Finals

At an awards convention held last Wednesday at MIT, three seniors and a freshman were honored for their athletic ability and contributions to the athletic program at the Institute. The Class of 1968 Award to the outstanding athlete was presented to Charles

W. "Chuck" Gamble, a leading performer on both the golf and basketball teams. This year he averaged eleven points a game for the first time this year. The

and was the leading playmaker on the basketball team which posted a 17-4 record. As a golfer, he is ranked among the top college players in the East.

The Admiral Edward L. Cochrane Award for scholarship, leadership, and humility in athletics

was awarded to Dirk Berghager, captain of the soccer team. Named an all-American in his junior year,

he led the soccer team to a 6-1-1

New England Soccer League record this season for fourth place in the 26 college league.

At the convention, Mr. Ross H. Smith, Director of Athletics, anounced that the E.C.A.C. Medal

of Merit will be presented at MIT for the first time this year. The

Medal is presented annually to each of forty Eastern universities

to the student who has performed outstanding achievements both as a scholar and an athlete. The first award winner at MIT is Philip J.

Robinson who was an outstanding performer in tennis, basketball and soccer while maintaining a

Dean's List average in his electrical engineering studies.

The freshman athlete of the year award was presented to Albert L. Tervelon, from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a sprinter and hurdles on the track team. During the indoor season this winter, he won fourteen hurdle races while losing only four. (Sports Press

Release)

4 Senior, Frosh Feted

4 Seniors, Frosh Feted

The Admiral Edward L. Cochrane Award for scholarship, leadership, and humility in athletics

was awarded to Dirk Berghager,

captain of the soccer team. Named

an all-American in his junior year,

he led the soccer team to a 6-1-1

New England Soccer League rec-

ord this season for fourth place in

the 26 college league.

At the convention, Mr. Ross H. Smith, Director of Athletics, an-

ounced that the E.C.A.C. Medal

of Merit will be presented at MIT

for the first time this year. The

Medal is presented annually to each of forty Eastern universities

to the student who has performed outstanding achievements both as

a scholar and an athlete. The first

award winner at MIT is Philip J.

Robinson who was an outstanding

performer in tennis, basketball

and soccer while maintaining a

Dean's List average in his electric-

al engineering studies.

The freshman athlete of the

year award was presented to Albert L. Tervelon, from Philadel-

phia, Pennsylvania, a sprinter

and hurdles on the track team. During

the indoor season this winter, he

won fourteen hurdle races while

losing only four. (Sports Press

Release)