The TECH
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1962
Page 7

Edward Albee's "The American Dream" and "The Zoo Story" are currently being presented at the Actors' Playhouse in the Hotel Bostonian. Both plays are being directed by Samuel Hirsch, who is also the Artistic Director of the Actors Playhouse. The performances are presented in collaboration with the Hotel Bostonian, which is located at 1138 Boylston Street, near the Fenway.

Just What You've Needed for Your Books!

By Charles Foster Ford

"The Threepenny Opera," which opened Tuesday night at the Actors Playhouse, has drawn praise for its innovative concepts. The play is based on the Sweeney Todd story, and its themes include social injustice, the value of human life, and the power of music to bring about change.

The production has been directed by Samuel Hirsch, who has given it a fresh and contemporary interpretation. The cast is headed by David Hoffman, who is known for his powerful and commanding performances. Other notable actors include Lucy Browne, who plays the role of Polly Peachum, and Richard Brown, who portrays the character of Mack the Knife.

The Threepenny Opera

Actors Playhouse is Offering
2 Plays By Albee Till Sept. 23

To order your copy of "The American Dream" and "The Zoo Story," contact the Actors Playhouse at 1138 Boylston Street, or call 536-0600. The plays are presented Thursday through Sunday, and there are matinee performances on Saturday and Sunday.

Countless Units can be designed with these 4 PANEL SIZES

Vertical Bookshelves

Consists of 25 3/4" Panels, 4,30" Panel, Wood Bases, Assembled Size 60" H x 22" L

£3.99 ea.

Entertainment and Stereo Wall Packages

Consists of 4,30" Panels, 64" Panel, Wood Bases, Assembled Size 50" W x 15" D

£2.39 ea.

National Bookcases

Consists of 11 3/4" Panels, 9 Wood Bases, Assembled Size 20" D x 45° L

£3.99 ea.

For more information on Erceta-Shelf and our full line of bookcases, room-dividers, and TV and Hi-Fi units, contact Erceta-Shelf at 1138 Boylston Street, or call 536-0600.

Making The Scene

Dean Harold Haazen Wins Lamme Medal

The nation's highest award in engineering education was presented during the summer on Professor Harold Haazen, Dean of the College of Engineering.

Dr. Haazen received the Lamme Medal at the annual meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education in June. He was cited for contributions to teaching, and for leadership in the development of engineering facilities.