NOW AT LAST COIN-OPERATED
DRY CLEANING

Inman Sq., Cambridge
Corner Hampshire and Amory Streets
(Next to Shamrock Cafe)

Fast, Easy, Safe, Economical
Cleans, Dries, Deodorizes, Freshens in just 45 min.

10 BIG POUNDS $2.00
OPEN 8 A.M. to 11 P.M.

Typical Loads
5 SWEATERS, 5 SKIRTS, 1 TOPCOAT, 2 DRESSES
or 4 WOOL SKIRTS, 2 SWEATERS

FOR A
SMOOTHER
TASTE

IN ORDINARY CIGARETTES

CHESTERFIELD CIGARETTES

FOR A
SMOOTHER
TASTE

THE STRAIN OF CHESTERFIELD KINGS

TASTES GREAT because the tobaccos are!

21 GREAT TOBACCOS MAKE 20 WONDERFUL SMOKES!
Vintage tobaccos grown, aged, and blended mild...made to taste as mild through the longer length of Chesterfield King.

CHESTERFIELD KING
TOBACCO TOO MILD TO FILTER; PLEASURE TOO GOOD TO MISS

Book Review
'Cookbook' Selections Too Selective

(Continued from Page 13)

Americanism to our Neighbors, our war heroes, our foreigners and our Scandinavians!"

"There have been a few random samples of quailable length. One might call the book a convivial, situation comedy. I wish I had space to quote the hypothetical reply of the FBI or an interview with the head of the HUAC, for example."

Mr. Thompson's style is very pleasant to the reader. The whole book reminds me of a monologue at a cocktail party. The author sounds, like he has had three or four martinis. He is quite untried, yet still intelligible and in command of his faculties.

The author's evocation of himself as found on the book's jacket gave me the impression that he is an expert with whom I might correspond, but not wish to know personally or to be seen with. The general effect of the text confirmed my first impression. I enjoyed reading his writing and thinking about his arguments, but I would not want him to read my soul's philosophy. Life can be difficult enough without being con- victed that one's country is con- trolled by murderers and baboons, even though it may actually be so.

The book is printed with large type that is easy to read. Each chapter is independent of the others. One may read the sections in any order or barring straight through. Whether you read this book in a two hour ses- sion or in ten minute sections, predict that Figge's Guide To America will give you chuckles and a hearty laugh or two. You will reap no lasting benefits from the book, but it is an extraordinarily pleasant diversion.

Mr. Sheridan designed his Cookbook to be a simple, readable classroom and homemaking guide for the single male. His work is surely satisfying to the bachelor's reading pal- ate, but leaves much to be de- stined in value as a kitchen aid. The opening chapters contain good advice on the use and man- fulness of numerous kitchen uten- sils and appliances, as for in- stance that the space between the handles of kitchen scissors is meant to be used for unscrewing small bottle tops. This section is particularly valuable for the man setting out to furnish a kitchen, but only need be read once in a lifetime.

For those bachelors who find they have women in their castles, Mr. Sheridan makes special pro- visions.

Outstanding here is the 8-step version. When one really sets out to cook, however, the real failings in the book appear. For one, the variety of dishes listed is not large. For another, the dishes suggested may not as simple as is desirable. Admittedly a qua- ghist and staid bachelor's house- holds may be tarty, but surely a bachelor is not a beginner nor have been suggested in addition. In and being selective as to what really basic information to include (or perhaps in trying too much to be humorous) the au- thor made some major omissions. No doubt, for instance, there is a table of weights and measures which could easily and usefully have been printed on the inside of the book. Whether or not there is a discussion as to the difference in size between a "pouch" and a "pound" is debatable. Regrettably for the whole affair, the illustrations are of an offici- nate and childish style, which works against the author's aims. All in all, rather than the pres- ented as a simple, readable cook, however the real failings pointed out in the book appear. For one, the variety of dishes listed is not large. For another, the dishes suggested may not as simple as is desirable. Admittedly a qua- ghist and staid bachelor's house- holds may be tarty, but surely a bachelor is not a beginner. In addition, this often leads to far superior meals than one can get for himself.

Police Seize Bikes Obstructing Sidewalks
(Continued from page 1)

Chief Brennan urged students to lock their bikes securely and park them on the edge of the sidewalk, out of the path of pedestrians.

Free Bikes for 'Cliffs' According to the Harvard Cru- sen, Tierney also plans to crack down on Radcliffe girls who "make a game of trying to stay on the white line in the middle of the road" while riding along Garden St. From now on, claimed Tierney, "Girls' bikes and little green bags are going to get a free ride to Central Square, via paddy wagon."

Elibitizer (Continued from Page 4)

Answer: a) four spades. This shows a hand good enough to play at any suit on the five level, especially hearts, and is slam in- vitational, to four normump. This is not Blackwood, but shows the 212

LEAGUE RESULTS:

Grad House over Delta Chi "B," 0-0
Phi Delta Theta over Theta Delta Chi "A," 0-0
Phi Delta Theta over Theta Delta Chi "C," 0-0
N.R.A. over Chinese Students
Burke House over Theta Delta Chi "A"
Phi Delta Theta over Theta Delta Chi "A," 212

Don't forget the two session open pair club championship, Tuesday night, Oct. 30th, 8 to 11 p.m., Blue Room, Walker, approxi- mately 35 Masterpoints to win.

SQUASH RACQUETS
All Makes-Large Variety
Tennis & Squash Shop
17A Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge
(Opp. Lowell House)
(Continued from Page 1)

10 BIG POUNDS $2.00
OPEN 8 A.M. to 11 P.M.

Typical Loads
5 SWEATERS, 5 SKIRTS, 1 TOPCOAT, 2 DRESSES
or 4 WOOL SKIRTS, 2 SWEATERS

FOR A
SMOOTHER
TASTE

IN ORDINARY CIGARETTES

CHESTERFIELD CIGARETTES

FOR A
SMOOTHER
TASTE

THE STRAIN OF CHESTERFIELD KINGS

TASTES GREAT because the tobaccos are!

21 GREAT TOBACCOS MAKE 20 WONDERFUL SMOKES!
Vintage tobaccos grown, aged, and blended mild...made to taste as mild through the longer length of Chesterfield King.

CHESTERFIELD KING
TOBACCO TOO MILD TO FILTER; PLEASURE TOO GOOD TO MISS

Book Review
'Cookbook' Selections Too Selective

(Continued from Page 13)

Americanism to our Neighbors, our war heroes, our foreigners and our Scandinavians!"

"There have been a few random samples of quailable length. One might call the book a convivial, situation comedy. I wish I had space to quote the hypothetical reply of the FBI or an interview with the head of the HUAC, for example."

Mr. Thompson's style is very pleasant to the reader. The whole book reminds me of a monologue at a cocktail party. The author sounds, like he has had three or four martinis. He is quite untried, yet still intelligible and in command of his faculties.

The author's evocation of himself as found on the book's jacket gave me the impression that he is an expert with whom I might correspond, but not wish to know personally or to be seen with. The general effect of the text confirmed my first impression. I enjoyed reading his writing and thinking about his arguments, but I would not want him to read my soul's philosophy. Life can be difficult enough without being con- victed that one's country is con- trolled by murderers and baboons, even though it may actually be so.

The book is printed with large type that is easy to read. Each chapter is independent of the others. One may read the sections in any order or barring straight through. Whether you read this book in a two hour ses- sion or in ten minute sections, predict that Figge's Guide To America will give you chuckles and a hearty laugh or two. You will reap no lasting benefits from the book, but it is an extraordinarily pleasant diversion.

Mr. Sheridan designed his Cookbook to be a simple, readable classroom and homemaking guide for the single male. His work is surely satisfying to the bachelor's reading pal- ate, but leaves much to be de- stined in value as a kitchen aid. The opening chapters contain good advice on the use and man- fulness of numerous kitchen uten- sils and appliances, as for in- stance that the space between the handles of kitchen scissors is meant to be used for unscrewing small bottle tops. This section is particularly valuable for the man setting out to furnish a kitchen, but only need be read once in a lifetime.

For those bachelors who find they have women in their castles, Mr. Sheridan makes special pro- visions.

Outstanding here is the 8-step version. When one really sets out to cook, however, the real failings in the book appear. For one, the variety of dishes listed is not large. For another, the dishes suggested may not as simple as is desirable. Admittedly a qua- ghist and staid bachelor's house- holds may be tarty, but surely a bachelor is not a beginner. In addition, this often leads to far superior meals than one can get for himself.

Police Seize Bikes Obstructing Sidewalks
(Continued from page 1)

Chief Brennan urged students to lock their bikes securely and park them on the edge of the sidewalk, out of the path of pedestrians.

Free Bikes for 'Cliffs' According to the Harvard Cru- sen, Tierney also plans to crack down on Radcliffe girls who "make a game of trying to stay on the white line in the middle of the road" while riding along Garden St. From now on, claimed Tierney, "Girls' bikes and little green bags are going to get a free ride to Central Square, via paddy wagon."

Elibitizer (Continued from Page 4)

Answer: a) four spades. This shows a hand good enough to play at any suit on the five level, especially hearts, and is slam in- vitational, to four normump. This is not Blackwood, but shows the