ME, EE, AE ENGINEERS

Ever wonder why you've never been to Paradise?

It isn’t because no roads lead there. According to the promises held out to engineering students, almost everywhere there’s an opening there is an exalted little Eden, or one close by.

We'll indulge in no such nonsense here. Connecticut is real . . . a fine place to live, to work, to play. We shall ask no more from you than all of these. If you are interested, we are.

Drop by your placement office and pick up your application for a position if you decide to enter. We'll be glad to answer your questions, and to take your application for a position if you decide to enter. We'll be glad to answer your questions, and to take
