"As Muslims we want segregation. We do not want to be united with a society that is on its way down," stated Malcolm X when he spoke at Simmons March 30. Segregation is the keynote of the Black Muslim plan of self help for the Negro, because they believe that the Negro cannot attain full equality "in the land of the former slave masters children".

By constantly reminding their followers of their slave heritage, by calling the white race their "open enemies" and the "real devils", and by emphasizing their persecution by the whites, the Black Muslims have built up a reputation as a hate group. Yet this is only part of the movement.

Basically a religious movement, Islam is merely a movement. By constantly reminding their followers of their slave reputation as a hate group. Yet this is only part of the movement.

"As Muslims we want segregation. We do not want our own society free from the tension, hatred and violence. Every time the White race of America" claims Elijah Muhammad. "We need the thrust that will pull us up . . . The Black man in America is so dumb and helpless that he is a prey in the hands of the white people".

Recently, Elijah Muhammad went as far as to say "We want the government of the United States to exempt the Negro of the United States the culture of the White man," says Elijah Muhammad, "and you will be his brother's head bleeding with the knocks on it from police brutality and from any white man who wants to beat him up. The Black man in America is so dumb and helpless that he is a prey in the hands of the white people".
