I am interested in an overseas career?

MR. LAURENS L. HENDERSON, JR.
CAREER COUNSELOR

The INTERESTED IN AN OVERSEAS CAREER?

INTERNATIONAL

sion Group

the first

Boston. Ed

Ed

THE BIELL- TELEPHONE COMPANIES

the job to discuss the training offered at A.l.F.T. (an intensive

American Institute

nine

On

another project,

Carr

1956;

he made

Pheonix, Arizona

the Company's first the

for message service.

Nature seems to use a simple but data processing system of bats.

But there are a few situations

From films taken in this man-one, can see the remarkable

If waves (ranging from 50 to 100,000 larger than a pencil eraser, the era records the motions of the of his project, Prof. Webster feels

As for the practical applications but and the ;bat will collide with the fro

12 boon

sound waves, correlates them with kc.) off the approaching target.

From films taken in this mani

sound waves, correlates them with previously compiled data, predicts the path of both himself and and executes extra-nuclear blackmail."

Buckley Hits Left

On Politics, Sex;

Dorothy Maier

(Continued from page 1)

are not Communists, but they us," he added."

are almost "feel" their environment

An application which has already been developed and commercialized is a blind guidance unit.

Buckley Hits Left

"Do one seem to know how to deal with Harvard University." Mr. Buckley extended his long-standing tradition of criticism of Harvard by recalling the tumultuous reception Carr received three years ago, noting that it is President Kennedy's alma mater.

He said the United States has been caught unprepared in the cold war too many times, so that a Papal encyclical of last year might have had New Deal overtones, it enforced the constitutional dictum of

"subsidiarity." He defined subidiarity as the principle that no

higher public agency

should take over

his function. The John Birch society was incapable of the

The Secretariat needs a list of officers of all student organizations, clubs, and enterprises to resulting from Mr. Kennedy's break up the state of euphoria

in a question and answer session. The following activities

Mr. Buckley indicated that he understand the march of history."

"But it is less due to the tactics of so that the "liberal Establishment" was incapable of the

A detailed summary of the tactics of criticism of Harvard by

Mr. Buckley continued. "The most educated men in our midst have understood the march of history."

Mr. Buckley Derides Mailer

"The John Birch Society President) than the liberal Establishment"

Mr. Buckley indicated that he believed that the John Birch society had discarded American conservatism to an extent, but

"it is not due to the tactics of Robert (John Birch Society President)"

Mr. Buckley concluded that "We live here in the West under a small ray of light, while over there is blackness." He recommended that the audience read

In a question and answer session afterwards, Mr. Buckley told a questioner that while a Papal encyclical of last year might have

had New Deal overtones, it en-

forced the constitutional dictum of

"subsidiarity." He defined sub-

idiarity as the principle that no

higher public agency

should take over

his function. The John Birch society was incapable of the

The Secretariat needs a list of

officers of all student organizations, clubs, and enterprises to

resulting from Mr. Kennedy's

break up the state of euphoria

in a question and answer session. The following activities

Mr. Buckley indicated that he

understand the march of history."

"But it is less due to the tactics of

so that the "liberal Establishment" was incapable of the

A detailed summary of the
tactics of criticism of Harvard by

Mr. Buckley continued. "The

most educated men in our midst have

understood the march of history."

Mr. Buckley Derides Mailer

"The John Birch Society President) than the

liberal Establishment"

Mr. Buckley indicated that he believed that the John Birch society had discarded American

conservatism to an extent, but

"it is not due to the tactics of

Robert (John Birch Society President)"

Mr. Buckley concluded that "We

live here in the West under a small ray of light, while over

there is blackness." He recommended that the audience read

In a question and answer session afterwards, Mr. Buckley told

a questioner that while a Papal

encyclical of last year might have

had New Deal overtones, it en-

forced the constitutional dictum of

"subsidiarity." He defined sub-

idiarity as the principle that no

higher public agency

should take over

his function. The John Birch society was incapable of the

The Secretariat needs a list of

officers of all student organizations, clubs, and enterprises to

resulting from Mr. Kennedy's

break up the state of euphoria

in a question and answer session. The following activities

Mr. Buckley indicated that he

understand the march of history."

"But it is less due to the tactics of

so that the "liberal Establishment" was incapable of the

A detailed summary of the
tactics of criticism of Harvard by

Mr. Buckley continued. "The

most educated men in our midst have

understood the march of history."

Mr. Buckley Derides Mailer

"The John Birch Society President) than the

liberal Establishment"

Mr. Buckley indicated that he believed that the John Birch society had discarded American

conservatism to an extent, but

"it is not due to the tactics of

Robert (John Birch Society President)"

Mr. Buckley concluded that "We

live here in the West under a small ray of light, while over

there is blackness." He recommended that the audience read

In a question and answer session afterwards, Mr. Buckley told

a questioner that while a Papal

encyclical of last year might have

had New Deal overtones, it en-

forced the constitutional dictum of

"subsidiarity." He defined sub-

idiarity as the principle that no

higher public agency

should take over

his function. The John Birch society was incapable of the

The Secretariat needs a list of

officers of all student organizations, clubs, and enterprises to

resulting from Mr. Kennedy's

break up the state of euphoria

in a question and answer session. The following activities

Mr. Buckley indicated that he

understand the march of history."

"But it is less due to the tactics of

so that the "liberal Establishment" was incapable of the

A detailed summary of the
tactics of criticism of Harvard by

Mr. Buckley continued. "The

most educated men in our midst have

understood the march of history."

Mr. Buckley Derides Mailer

"The John Birch Society President) than the

liberal Establishment"

Mr. Buckley indicated that he believed that the John Birch society had discarded American

conservatism to an extent, but

"it is not due to the tactics of

Robert (John Birch Society President)"

Mr. Buckley concluded that "We

live here in the West under a small ray of light, while over

there is blackness." He recommended that the audience read

In a question and answer session afterwards, Mr. Buckley told

a questioner that while a Papal

encyclical of last year might have

had New Deal overtones, it en-

forced the constitutional dictum of

"subsidiarity." He defined sub-

idiarity as the principle that no

higher public agency

should take over

his function. The John Birch society was incapable of the

The Secretariat needs a list of

officers of all student organizations, clubs, and enterprises to

resulting from Mr. Kennedy's

break up the state of euphoria

in a question and answer session. The following activities

Mr. Buckley indicated that he

understand the march of history."

"But it is less due to the tactics of

so that the "liberal Establishment" was incapable of the

A detailed summary of the
tactics of criticism of Harvard by

Mr. Buckley continued. "The

most educated men in our midst have

understood the march of history."

Mr. Buckley Derides Mailer

"The John Birch Society President) than the

liberal Establishment"

Mr. Buckley indicated that he believed that the John Birch society had discarded American

conservatism to an extent, but

"it is not due to the tactics of

Robert (John Birch Society President)"

Mr. Buckley concluded that "We

live here in the West under a small ray of light, while over

there is blackness." He recommended that the audience read

In a question and answer session afterwards, Mr. Buckley told

a questioner that while a Papal

encyclical of last year might have

had New Deal overtones, it en-

forced the constitutional dictum of

"subsidiarity." He defined sub-

idiarity as the principle that no

higher public agency

should take over

his function. The John Birch so-si