Activities Meeting Debates
Commissions To Students

Whether commissions should be paid by activities either to mem-members or to other students was discussed at length at the fall conference of MIT activities, held Sunday in the Van Vleck Room.

The group, composed of representatives of the possibility of seminars for activities, and the progress of the Public Relation Committee's Controversy over the payment of commissions was heightened by President Charles W. Eliot's recent decision to give commissions to its salaried advertising and staff. Incom was paid but the Advertising and Activities Committee discuss the same and sub-

Some representatives to the conference proposed that the criticism of the use of commissions be his financial benefit to go activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing pay-

The Boston Stein Club, an association of MIT students, de-

A graduate of the University of Glasgow, Scot-

Kaufman '63 is chairman of the confer-

Prof. Thomas B. King was appointed Head of the Department of Metallurgy, Thursday.

A graduate of the University of Glasgow, Scot-

King came to MIT in 1953 at the age of 30. He

In a letter to the Technic, to give candidates more

The Institute Committee will elect a new

Incom is looking for a new head of Scep to replace Al Kessler resigned two weeks ago saying that he was withdrawing from the school for one year.

The Technological Education at MIT, among them evaluation of courses through feedback and consideration of the

Some students interested in running for the office of student-commissioner requested to leave their names with the secretary in Liebig House.

The activities committee unanimously suspended a section of the by-laws of Scep in order large, quite reasonably to allow Technique to give commissions to its salaried advertising and staff.

SCEP Head Al Kessler Resigns, Leaves Institute; Seek Chairman Nominee

Oddly enough in the classroom, in the case of subis-

Others opposed commissions on the ground that the student work is in effect paying someone to tell

It was noted that frequent discussions of the student work is on the subject of activity and the progress of the Public Relation Committee's

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments to be definitely banned, that introductions to advertising

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from activity would not provide a

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most

The conference finally decided that non-revenue producing payments subject to deductions from advertising revenue, and shorten the life of the activity in question. It was pointed out that publications, most