Burton, Baker SPE Lead Intramural Bowling League

After one week of IM bowling, Burton A, Baker A and Sigma Phi Epsilon occupy the top three positions in a field of 44 teams. Gary Palmes '62, of Phi Sigma Kappa, and Jim Backnawas '66 (GDDO), lead all individual scorers.

Team standings in this league are compiled on the basis of cumulative team points. One point is awarded for each game won, and one for each 50 pins knocked down. There are three men on a team, and each match consists of three games. At the end of eight weeks total team points will determine the final standings.

TEAM STANDINGS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sigma Phi Eps'n A</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Delta Epsilon</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Phi Delta Theta</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

As the IM basketball season approaches its halfway mark, a few strong contenders have emerged in each league to battle for their respective championships.

In the American League, Grad. House A and Paradise Club tie for the lead with identical 36-36 records. Paradise Club took a tight 56-55 victory over Sigma Alpha Epsilon to move into this position. Senior House A dropped Sigma Chi, 59-31, to tie SAC for second place.

The most important action in the National League was the surprising defeat of Burton A by Baker A, 74-70. Grad. House B edged Delta Epsilon, 56-33, tying Baker for the league leadership. In another close contest, Theta Chi defeated Phi Gamma Delta, 45-37, to knock the Flas out of contention for the lead.

In the American Association, Delta Upsilon overruns Burton B, 72-72, to move into a first place tie with Delta Tau Delta. These two teams meet Dec. 18 in a game that could decide the league championship.

An exciting contest in the International League, Pt Lambda Phi edged Baker B, 45-43, to tie for second place. Baker B moves league leader Pt Sigma Kappa to fourth place in a clash for first place.

WEEK'S RESULTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Delta Epsilon</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Phi Delta Theta</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sigma Phi Eps'n A</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

BASKETBALL STANDINGS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Delta Epsilon</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sigma Phi Eps'n A</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

COIN-OPERATED DRY CLEANING (Cash, American Express, Master Card)

WEATHER

Sunday: 50°F - 70°F, Mostly Sunny

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.

Ski Team To Rebuild; Two Veterans Return

The loss of three of his top ski-ers has hit Jens Jorgensen, M.D.'s ski coach, with the problem of equaling last year's team with only two veteran skiers. Peter Geilen, George Elms and Roberto Perezi graduated last year after leading the team to victory in Maine.

Assistant, Wessel Return

The leading members on this year's squad are Captain Bent Aasnaes '62, and Henrik Wessel '64. Aasnaes, Tech's Norwegian tennis star, won the distance competition at Sugarbush Mountain in Maple last February. Wessel, a fellow countryman of Aasnaes', has received an invitation to the Olympic training camp in preparation for the 1964 games. In last year's competition in Maine, Wes- sel placed first in the Slalom race.

Allstate Coach Jorgensen has fourers, candidates cut for the squad. These include four freshmen and several transfer students who have displayed fine potential.