Trinity Halts Tech's Skein

Tech Cagers Tie In Final Seconds

MIT's 15 game lose run in basketball was ended Saturday night. In MIT's most dramatic game ever, Trinity defeated the Engineers, winning in overtime, 73-72.

MIT Flints to Lead at Half

The first half of the game was a close fought war, the Engineers leading 39-36 at the half. But Jack Moter lit the spark. For 10 minutes straight, Delta Psi, 8-2, on the strength of tenacious defense could not steal the ball. The Engineers could only get 2 points, and building a 3-point spread. Both Moter and two other Techmen overcame Bowdoin 48-31, while one defeat last Saturday at Bowdoin.

Frosh Sports

Grapplers, Swimmers Win

The frosh winter sports season began with a successful event in early January, as the Engineers took the lead in the 100-yard medley relay. The team opened the season with a victory in the 100-yard freestyle, and followed it with a strong showing in the 100-yard backstroke.

IM Hockey Opens PGD Wins 8-2

I. M. hockey got under way last month with action in four of the five local leagues. In the A League, defending champion Phi Gamma Delta A took the early lead with a 6-4 victory over Delta Psi.

Tech Swimmers Topped By Bowdoin 64-31

MIT's swimming teams began their season with one victory and five losses in a dual meet against Bowdoin. The Engineers' victory came in the 400-yard freestyle relay. Third places were obtained by Dick St. Peters in the 100-yard backstroke; Steve Collier in the 200-yard freestyle; and Janice Laib in the 200-yard breaststroke.
