

Program of Lieder Tonight at Jordan Hall

The New England Conservatory will present Orrea Pernel, violinist, in recital of sonatas for piano and violin by Beethoven and Brahms, Schubert, Schumann, and Wolf, at 8:30 p.m., in the Hayden Music Library.

Making the Scene

Janet Adams, George Parakos, Tina Aquino, Sara Robinson, and Terry Grant will present Orrea Pernel's recital at Jordan Hall. The program will include sonatas by Beethoven, Brahms, Schubert, Schumann, and Wolf, and a new work by Leonard Rosenman, to be commissioned by the Conservatory. The concert will be broadcast simultaneously over WGBH-FM.

---

GEULA GILL with the Oranam

NIGHTLY — Jan. 11 — Jan. 19

TONIGHT

Jim Kwsinski

Jan. 20 — Feb. 3

The Grandson Singers

Unicorn Coffee House and Gallery

825 Boylston Street, Boston

Allegheley AIRLINES

Your AIR COMPUTER SERVICE in 12 BUSY STATES

---

Community Players To Offer Saroyan's 'Time of Your Life'

The MIT Community Players will present William Saroyan's "Time of Your Life" on January 17, 18, 19, and 24, 25, 26, in the Kresge Auditorium. The play represents life in America during the thirties. It is the story of how the individual's identity is preserved by the Players this production, representing the individual's identity within society.

Mr. Maurice Breslow, technical assistant to the Players, will give a class concerning the individual's identity within society.

---

Odada Abstracts Now At Library

An exhibition of twenty paintings by losing students, opened Monday at Hayden Library, and will be on view through January 27.

Odada has been selected by both Japan and the United States to represent them, individually, in exhibitions and competitions.

---

Gottmann Discusses Megalopolis Crisis

Jean Gottmann, an authority on urbanization, will speak at Wellesley College Thursday evening on the development of large cities along the North Atlantic coast of America.

Gottmann is the author of "The Challenge of Urbanization." His work is represented in major U.S. museum collections.

---

Peace Corps Tests To Be Given Jan. 26

Peace Corps Placement tests will be given at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 26, at Memorial Hall, Harvard University, in Salt Lake City, and Cambridge Streets. To qualify for the test, fill out a Peace Corps Questionaire available at any Post Office and send it to the Peace Corps, Washington 25, D.C. (or reserved by calling extension 2525.)

---

Seated beside R. L. was a tiny, gnarled man with wispy, delicate tracery of fragile bones beneath. His back was bent, and his hands trembled. His eyes were bright and clear; R. L. looked into those eyes, into the wrinkled face. He saw wisdom there, and experience, and knowledge. "Do you think, sir," said R. L., "that a boy can work his way through college?"

"Yes, he can," replied the stranger modestly, shaking his head. "But when one is young, all things are possible. I, for example, used to get up by five a.m. and read until six. And then I did odd jobs and made money."

Effective Jan. 27, the Peace Corps will have a Peace Corps Questionaire available at any Post Office and send it to the Peace Corps, Washington 25, D.C. (or reserved by calling extension 2525.)

---

Gottmann Discusses Megalopolis Crisis

Jean Gottmann, an authority on urbanization, will speak at Wellesley College Thursday evening on the development of large cities along the North Atlantic coast of America.

Gottmann is the author of "The Challenge of Urbanization." His work is represented in major U.S. museum collections.

---

Peace Corps Tests To Be Given Jan. 26

Peace Corps Placement tests will be given at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 26, at Memorial Hall, Harvard University, in Salt Lake City, and Cambridge Streets. To qualify for the test, fill out a Peace Corps Questionaire available at any Post Office and send it to the Peace Corps, Washington 25, D.C. (or reserved by calling extension 2525.)

---

Seated beside R. L. was a tiny, gnarled man with wispy, delicate tracery of fragile bones beneath. His back was bent, and his hands trembled. His eyes were bright and clear; R. L. looked into those eyes, into the wrinkled face. He saw wisdom there, and experience, and knowledge. "Do you think, sir," said R. L., "that a boy can work his way through college?"

"Yes, he can," replied the stranger modestly, shaking his head. "But when one is young, all things are possible. I, for example, used to get up by five a.m. and read until six. And then I did odd jobs and made money."

Effective Jan. 27, the Peace Corps will have a Peace Corps Questionaire available at any Post Office and send it to the Peace Corps, Washington 25, D.C. (or reserved by calling extension 2525.)

---

Gottmann Discusses Megalopolis Crisis

Jean Gottmann, an authority on urbanization, will speak at Wellesley College Thursday evening on the development of large cities along the North Atlantic coast of America.

Gottmann is the author of "The Challenge of Urbanization." His work is represented in major U.S. museum collections.

---

Peace Corps Tests To Be Given Jan. 26

Peace Corps Placement tests will be given at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 26, at Memorial Hall, Harvard University, in Salt Lake City, and Cambridge Streets. To qualify for the test, fill out a Peace Corps Questionaire available at any Post Office and send it to the Peace Corps, Washington 25, D.C. (or reserved by calling extension 2525.)

---

Gottmann Discusses Megalopolis Crisis

Jean Gottmann, an authority on urbanization, will speak at Wellesley College Thursday evening on the development of large cities along the North Atlantic coast of America.

Gottmann is the author of "The Challenge of Urbanization." His work is represented in major U.S. museum collections.

---

Peace Corps Tests To Be Given Jan. 26

Peace Corps Placement tests will be given at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 26, at Memorial Hall, Harvard University, in Salt Lake City, and Cambridge Streets. To qualify for the test, fill out a Peace Corps Questionaire available at any Post Office and send it to the Peace Corps, Washington 25, D.C. (or reserved by calling extension 2525.)