Engineers Capture Hoop Title in Montreal Tournament

The intramural basketball teams closed out their regular season the week before Christmas vacation, with the final standings showing ties for first place in both leagues. The regular season was divided into two halves, each half decided on an 8-week schedule that culminated in a championship round. In the Eastern League, which consisted of the following teams: Theta Delta Chi, Alpha Epsilon Pi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Pi Lambda Phi, the championship was won by Theta Delta Chi, who defeated Alpha Epsilon Pi in the final round. In the Western League, which consisted of the following teams: Pi Lambda Phi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Phi Mu Delta, the championship was won by Sigma Phi Epsilon, who defeated Pi Lambda Phi in the final round. The tournament was held at the Student Center, with games starting at 7:00 PM on weekdays and 8:00 PM on weekends.

The Top 10 Players of the Tournament:
- George McQueen (Theta Delta Chi), 19 points
- Ted Grant (Theta Delta Chi), 18 points
- Frank Van (Pi Lambda Phi), 17 points
- Pat Frizzell (Sigma Phi Epsilon), 16 points
- Mike O'Connell (Sigma Phi Epsilon), 15 points
- Pat Powers (Pi Lambda Phi), 14 points
- Bob Faust (Phi Mu Delta), 13 points
- Dave Grant (Phi Mu Delta), 12 points
- Jack Moter (Phi Mu Delta), 11 points
- Jim Paarz (Phi Mu Delta), 10 points

The final scores were as follows:
- Theta Delta Chi 87, Alpha Epsilon Pi 85
- Sigma Phi Epsilon 84, Pi Lambda Phi 82
- Phi Mu Delta 80, Phi Mu Delta 78

In the championship game, Theta Delta Chi used a strong defense to hold Alpha Epsilon Pi to just 80 points, while their own offense scored 87 points. Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Lambda Phi played a tight game, with Sigma Phi Epsilon winning 84-82. Phi Mu Delta played a close game against Phi Mu Delta, with Phi Mu Delta winning by two points, 80-78.

The tournament was sponsored by the Intramural Activities Committee, and was open to all registered students. The top 10 players were selected based on their performance throughout the tournament, with points awarded for each victory. The tournament concluded on Saturday, December 20th, with the final standings announced on Sunday, December 21st.