Squash Team Defeats
Seton Hall By 9-0,
Loses To Trinity 6-3

MIT's varsity squash team, defeated Seton Hall here Thursday, Feb. 13, by a score of 9-0, in the most substantial victory of the season for the occupants. All of the individual matches were won by scores of 3-0 with the exception of the number 2 position where Paul Burgl '63 defeated his opponent in one of the longest matches played this year.

Tech Falls to Trinity

MIT journeyed to Hartford Satturday to take on Trinity College.
The Tech varsity fell 6-3 despite the very fine wins by Jim Taylor
of the number 2 position where
Paul Burgl '63 defeated his opponent in one of the longest
matches played this year.

Captain Dick Ludeman '63 fired
the first was composed of Lude-
man, 280; Riggs, 285; Downward, 320; and Skilnner, 277, for a total of 1123. The second team was com-pbised of Bruce Peterson '63, Fredricks, 390; Dave Hamada '63, 327;
and team manager/shooter
Gregg Davis 5476-3. Tech's 1 total for this match was 1123.

Although officials results have not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.

Win By 1429-1425

Riflemen Shoot Down NU

MIT's riflemen scored their second straight win 1429-1425 over Northeastern. Five men scored 280 or above to lead the Techmen
to victory.

I The Tech varsity fell 6-3 despite the very fine wins by Jim Taylor
of the number 2 position where
Paul Burgl '63 defeated his opponent in one of the longest
matches played this year.

The Varsity faces Amherst at February 12, by a score of 9-0, in the second straight win 1429-1425 over
Northeastern. Five men scored 280's, and Skinner 277, for a total of 1123. Although officials results have
not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.

Win By 1429-1425

Riflemen Shoot Down NU

MIT's riflemen scored their
second straight win 1429-1425 over
Northeastern. Five men scored
280 or above to lead the Techmen
to victory.

Note: Connecticut Saturday. The Beavers entered two 4-man teams.
The first was composed of Lude-
man, 280; Riggs, 285; Downward, 320; and Skilnner, 277, for a total of 1123. The second team was com-
pbised of Bruce Peterson '63, Fredricks, 390; Dave Hamada '63, 327;
and team manager/shooter
Gregg Davis 5476-3. Tech's 1 total
for this match was 1123.

Although officials results have
not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.

Win By 1429-1425

Riflemen Shoot Down NU

MIT's riflemen scored their
second straight win 1429-1425 over
Northeastern. Five men scored
280 or above to lead the Techmen
to victory.

Note: Connecticut Saturday. The
Beavers entered two 4-man teams.
The first was composed of Lude-
man, 280; Riggs, 285; Downward, 320; and Skilnner, 277, for a total of 1123. The second team was com-
pbised of Bruce Peterson '63, Fredricks, 390; Dave Hamada '63, 327;
and team manager/shooter
Gregg Davis 5476-3. Tech's 1 total
for this match was 1123.

Although officials results have
not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.

Win By 1429-1425

Riflemen Shoot Down NU

MIT's riflemen scored their
second straight win 1429-1425 over
Northeastern. Five men scored
280 or above to lead the Techmen
to victory.

Note: Connecticut Saturday. The
Beavers entered two 4-man teams.
The first was composed of Lude-
man, 280; Riggs, 285; Downward, 320; and Skilnner, 277, for a total of 1123. The second team was com-
pbised of Bruce Peterson '63, Fredricks, 390; Dave Hamada '63, 327;
and team manager/shooter
Gregg Davis 5476-3. Tech's 1 total
for this match was 1123.

Although officials results have
not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.

Win By 1429-1425

Riflemen Shoot Down NU

MIT's riflemen scored their
second straight win 1429-1425 over
Northeastern. Five men scored
280 or above to lead the Techmen
to victory.

Note: Connecticut Saturday. The
Beavers entered two 4-man teams.
The first was composed of Lude-
man, 280; Riggs, 285; Downward, 320; and Skilnner, 277, for a total of 1123. The second team was com-
pbised of Bruce Peterson '63, Fredricks, 390; Dave Hamada '63, 327;
and team manager/shooter
Gregg Davis 5476-3. Tech's 1 total
for this match was 1123.

Although officials results have
not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.

Win By 1429-1425

Riflemen Shoot Down NU

MIT's riflemen scored their
second straight win 1429-1425 over
Northeastern. Five men scored
280 or above to lead the Techmen
to victory.

Note: Connecticut Saturday. The
Beavers entered two 4-man teams.
The first was composed of Lude-
man, 280; Riggs, 285; Downward, 320; and Skilnner, 277, for a total of 1123. The second team was com-
pbised of Bruce Peterson '63, Fredricks, 390; Dave Hamada '63, 327;
and team manager/shooter
Gregg Davis 5476-3. Tech's 1 total
for this match was 1123.

Although officials results have
not been received yet, it is anticipated that the two teams will
place in the upper fifth and third,
respectively, of the 29 teams entered.