MIT Fencers Win 33 Of 99 Bouts, Finish Eleventh In E.C.A.C. Tournament

Tech’s fencers ranked 11th out of 12 teams entered in last week’s 6th annual E.C.A.C. (Eastern Collegiate Athletic Council) Fencing Championships in Philadelphia. MIT took 33 bouts out of 99 bouts fought, while Columbia won the meet with a score of 86.

2nd place went to New York University with 62 bouts, and 3rd place to Navy with 63 bouts. The competition has been dominated by Columbia, N.Y., and Navy since 1951. The other schools entered were: Cornell, City College of New York, Princeton, Yale, Harvard, Rutgers, Pennsylvania, and Penn State.

Three-Bracket Tournament

The competition in each weapon consisted of a 3-Bracket (3-pool) tournament. The 1st bracket in each weapon pitted against each other the 1st-rated fencers from each school. The other 2 groups consisted of the 2nd and 3rd-rated fencers, respectively. 3 men from the first group, 2 men from the second group, and one from the 3rd group entered a round-robin face-off to determine the individual winners.

Dave Stone ’63, won 6 bouts to tie for 3rd place in epee. A freshman, the 3rd place spot went to Harvard’s Steve Kinney. Dave Johnson ’63 won 6 bouts to capture 4th place in the 3rd pool. MIT finished 5th in the tourney with 13 bouts won of a possible 33.

Sophomore Wire

Sophomore Mike Oppenheimer won 4 bouts in the 1st bracket of full competition. Ralph Zimm-"ihn ’64, successfully defeated his opponent on the N.Y.U. team, but finished with only one other victory. MIT finished 12th with 8 bouts won.

In sabre competition, Art Best ’64 captured 5 bouts in the 1st pool, including one from the highly-rated Navy team, and Bob Mans ’63 won 5 bouts in the 3rd position. Neither score was sufficient to qualify for the individual championship ship round robin. M.I.T. finished 11th in sabre with 12 bouts won.

4 Teams Seek Volleyball Title Tonight

The winner of this year’s intramural volleyball competition will be decided between 7:00 and 9:00 this evening. Last week’s standing field of 32 teams was whittled down to 8 contenders for the title, and no last minute the number was reduced to four.

4 Teams Established

As we go to press, the remaining teams are: Graduate Management Society, Club Mediterranean, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Electronic Engineers’ Society, Chinese Students Club, Lambda Chi Al-pha, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. The first 4 of these teams are as yet unbeaten in the double elimination tournament.

Managers Feature Speaking Graduate Management Society depends on powerful sparring (juggling with the net, and slamming the ball down) for most of its points. It has counted victories against Batten A. (15-14, 15-10), Chinese Students (15-12, 16-15), and Beta Theta Pi (15-12, 16-15). Beta Theta Pi features ball control, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon features flair.

T-Club Elects New Officers

New T-Club officers were elected March 23. The president is Ken Shot ’63, the vice-president is Gary Lukas, the secretary is David Carver ’66, and the treasurer is Ken Morath ’66.

Lacrosse Men Meet Hofstra in Opener

The MIT Lacrosse season will open during spring vacation when the Beavers play Hofstra, C.W. Post, and the United States Military Academy on Long Island and C.C.N.Y. in New York City.

Coach Ben Martin predicts it will be a rough season. “We lost good players last year and the other teams we play in our regular schedule have improved a good deal,” he com-mented.

The returning first-stringers are Mike Walton ’64, Tony Weikel ’64, B. Hunter ’64, and Dennis Dwain ’64; and Richard Lijeski ’64. Among the sophomores up front are Bill Tourtellot, Steve Bertman, and Martin expects good work from defensive weapon MacLeod.

One of the seven golden keys to brewing Budweiser

Premium-priced imported hops, blended with fine domestic strains, are part of the secret of that refreshing Budweiser taste.

The hearts of the makers of Marlboro go out to poor Mandolin Glebe, a sweet, unspoiled country boy, who has just started college. Today I get a letter from him which I will reprint here because I know Mandolin’s problems are as much like your own, Mandolin writes:

Dear Mandolin (he thinks my name is Mandolin too),

I see by the college paper that you are writing a column for Marlboro Cigarettes. I think your column is already doing things with real nice tobacco and a ginger-peachy filter, and I want you to know why I don’t smoke them.

One more of the seven special things we do to make your enjoyment of Budweiser even greater!

CHOICEST HOPS

Meanwhile this fellow comes around every week to collect the dues, which are $40, plus a $10 fine for missing the weekly meeting, plus a $5 assessment to buy a handkerchief for Spud, the late, beloved beagle who was the fraternity mascot.

I have never regretted joining the fraternity, because it is my dearest wish to be a BMOC and the envy of all the co-ed crowd. If you can see that it is not cheap. Wouldn’t be bad if I slept at the frat house, but you must agree that I can’t sleep at the house if I don’t know the house is there.

I have rented a room which is not only grotesquely expensive, but it is not at all the kind of place I want. I was led to believe I wanted someone reasonably priced, clean, comfortable, and within walking distance of the college infirmary, the college infirmary.

I have a corduroy pants to(gether. But nothing worked, and finally I couldn’t afford another. Keep ‘em flying.

Well, I must close now. My pencil is wore out and I can’t get another.

I have rented a room which is not only

I was looking for a girl, but it is not at all the kind of

I have a room which is not only due, and I can’t afford another. Keep ‘em flying.

Well, I must close now. My pencil is wore out and I can’t afford another.

I have a room which is not only
due, and I can’t afford another. Keep ‘em flying.

Well, I must close now. My pencil is wore out and I can’t afford another.

I have a room which is not only
due, and I can’t afford another. Keep ‘em flying.

Well, I must close now. My pencil is wore out and I can’t afford another.

I have a room which is not only due, and I can’t afford another. Keep ‘em flying.