ARE YOU A STRAPHANGER?

To give up the crowded, uncomfortable trolley or subway, to transfer from one to another, is no fun. But with a Vespa, you're really on the move. Free from the crowds, free from worry. Ready at any time to take you to your destination at your own pace. Vespa can carry your family, too. Free up your independence. Give yourself a Vespa today! And don't forget: You can always sell your Vespa for what you paid for it. For the Vespa is a capital investment in freedom. BOSTON VESPA CO., INC.

OLD AND NEW INSCOMS TO CONFER
The old and new Institute Committees will consider problems of student government at a Leadership Conference, Friday and Saturday, May 3-4. The outgoing Institute Committee will be honored at a dinner sponsored by Dean of Student Affairs, Ronald W. Wade, Friday evening. President Julius A. Stratton and Dean Wadleigh will address the two Institute Committees. Last year's student government activities will then be discussed.

Saturday, the new Inscoms will discuss next year's program.

GRAD STUDENT HURT IN COLLISION
James P. Geiser '62, a graduate student, was seriously injured in an automobile accident last Saturday at the intersection of Mass. Avenue and Memorial Drive. Geiser, riding on a motor cycle, was struck when the car he had attempted to pass made a U-turn. He was seriously hurt and was taken to Mount Auburn Hospital in Cambridge, where he underwent surgery Monday afternoon.

Hospital officials described his condition Monday night as "good."
