Hallowe'en brings rioters to McCormick in search of pantries

Rioters staged a Hallowe'en eve demonstration at McCormick Hall. The action-seeking crowd was encouraged in their efforts by a gathering of coeds, festivities were carried on in the lounge and lobby area of the first floor as well as on the lawn where coeds showered their serenaders with assorted household debris. The rioters, however, the rioters due to a sit-in which blocked the exits. Encouraged by a majority of the coeds which were present, the rioters made another attempt to reach the girls' beds, but they were again halted. Finally, the patrol forced the rioters outside where they were shown from the rooms above by stockings filled with water, ice cubes, and other debris. Among the rioters were Larry Silverstein and Howard Winesberg, both freshmen, who were caught above the first floor. They were assisted in foiling the stairway plans by Anne Tate and Kathy Fremer, also freshmen. Disciplin ary actions against the girls will be considered by the McCormick Dormitory Council.
