'Charade' shiny come

By Gilbert R. Prior

After the recent World Cup, one is welcome. 'Charade' is an ex- cessively inventive mixture of murder, mystery, romance, and the better balanced, but generally pleasant, Stanley Donen; the director, of the 'Charade' - duty, which would sort of bring out the palette, 'Indecent' - but which its own side of the film for a city of the treatment of murder

Marie-Claire Alain, French organist, to play at Kresge

Marie-Claire Alain will give an organ concert at Kresge Auditorium at 8:30.

One of Andre Marchal's students, she is part of France's most famous musical family. Her father, Albert Alain, was an organist and composer; her older sister a singer; and both brothers composers.

She will play works by Jean-Baptiste and Francois Durand, Corelli, Guillaume-Gabriel Rivas, Louis Vierne, and Bach. Half of the program will be devoted to works by members of her family, Albert, Price, and Jehan Alain.

Tickets are $1.50 at the Kresge Box Office.
