Cagers split Canadian tourneys

by Bob Kidd

The first annual MIT Holiday Basketball Tournament was held at Du Pont Athletic Center last Saturday. The tournament was a single elimination affair with a championship bracket. Nine college and eight high school teams participated. The tournament was sponsored by the BC Club, much improved from last year, was also strong and should be a top contender in this year’s New England action.

Frosh sports

Hoopmen Beat Harvard 68-55

Tech’s frosh hoopmen won its sixth straight victory at the expense of Harvard December 17, before finally dropping a contest to Northeastern, 88-76 December 20.

In the Northeastern game, the squad was plagued by sloppy ball handling. Both teams scored 80 points apiece. The Engineers were represented by a strong seven man team, Williams College, much improved from last year, was also strong and should be a top contender in this year’s New England action.

Win 5 of 8 events

by Candis Pavlick

Phi Delta Theta captured 5 of 8 events in the intramural swimming meet December 13 to sail unchallenged to eight points as they went on to place second place in the 200-yard breaststroke. In the 200-yard breaststroke, the team went 1:57.0, 1:57.0, and 1:57.1.

Participation in this year’s meet was higher than ever before. There were 87 swimmers representing sixteen intramural groups competing. Five of seven meet records were toppled as the swimmers displayed their excellent skills.

Doug Spengel ‘65 of PFD swam the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:05.4, less than two seconds off his record 34.8 of last year in the 50 yard breaststroke. Gary Stiltz of Grad House swam the 50-yard butterfly in 31.7, and George Kossuth of Ll made the mark in the 50-yard freestyle in 49.6.

In the 200-yard breaststroke, the ‘65 swimmers won 5 of 8 events.

a particular place for particular skiers.

A single chair lift, rising 2000 ft., a double chair lift, rising 1800 ft., and a T-bar, serving a wide network of trails, ranging from very gentle to very steep.

NOTE: Since the above picture was produced, two new trails have been added: (1) a most interesting trail of ranging grades and 24 curves running from the mid-station to the east of the base of the mountain, called Long, 1300’ drop; (2) another trail of “slalom grade” character, from the top of the double chair lift half way down the mountain.

There’s no better skiing anywhere in the East!

MAD RIVER GLEN
Ski Area
WAITSFIELD - VERMONT