WTBS Schedules
Live Folk Music

Section WTBS will broadcast a program of live folk music every Friday at 9:00 this term. This cooperative venture of WTBS and WBU, the on-campus station at Boston University, will feature interviews with performers at the Cafe Vasa and discussions of the more technical aspects of folk music.

WTBS will also broadcast a United Nations News Review in cooperation with United Nations Radio. It will be every Monday night at 10:00.

to Management—Move You Up From There?

Not many. But with the Bell System you begin in a management position. You'll be given an opportunity to become a good executive, familiar with a spectrum of challenging management, research or manufacturing positions.

Only the sky is the limit for a bright college graduate in a field that offers you a future.

If you're in the upper half of your class, you may be just the man we want. Make an appointment for an interview at your placement office ow.
