1. I’ll tell you what you have to look for in a job. You have to look for fringe benefits. That’s the big thing today.

Yes—the big thing.

2. You have to get married some day, don’t you? Then you need life and accident insurance.

Go on—go on—

3. You’re going to have kids—so you’ll want maternity benefits.

I’d like lots of children.

4. And what about medical bills? That’s something every big family has to think about. You need a good major medical plan that covers almost everything.

You’re right—you’re right!

5. And you’re not going to want to work all your life, are you? You’re going to want to take it easy—you know, travel around, work your life, are you?

Yes, that’s a consideration.

6. That’s why I say you have to look at the fringe benefits when you look for a job.

But don’t you also have to look for interesting work, good income, the chance for advancement?

I admire your thinking.

7. You’re doing. That’s why I’m going to work for Equitable. You get those job advantages—and all the fringe benefits, too.

Combined Groups To Give Concert

The Smith College Choir will perform along with the MIT Glee Club and the Cambridge Festival Orchestra at Kresge Auditorium, Sunday, March 3.

Tickets will be available to MIT students for $1.00 in the lobby of Building 25, beginning March 1.

The concert will begin at 3:00.