Cagers 14-6 after Jaunt

By Dick Perron

Two victories in three contests on the inter-season road trip gave the MIT cagers a 14-6 record to start the year. The first two games were against Brown Polytechnic in New York and Dartmouth, and the third contest was a home meeting with Holy Cross.

The Brown Poly game was played in New York on Tuesday evening, February 6, and was a close one, with the Cagers winning by 30-20. The game was played before an audience of 1,000 fans at the Atlantic Garden, and the score was 30-20 in favor of the MIT team.

The Dartmouth game was played in Hanover,
New Hampshire, on Thursday, February 8, and was another close one, with the Cagers winning by 30-28. The game was played before an audience of 1,500 fans at the Dartmouth Gymnasium, and the score was 30-28 in favor of the MIT team.

The home meeting with Holy Cross was played in Boston on Monday, February 12, and was another close one, with the Cagers winning by 30-29. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the Holy Cross Gymnasium, and the score was 30-29 in favor of the MIT team.

Trackmen cop four firsts in MIT Invitational Meet

Trackmen capped off a busy interseason schedule by winning four events at the MIT Inside Track Meet held Saturday, February 10, at St. John's University. The meet was held in the new St. John's Field House, and the score was 44-44 in favor of MIT.

The following Saturday, February 17, the Cagers played their first home meet of the season against Holy Cross and lost by a score of 30-29. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the Holy Cross Gymnasium, and the score was 30-29 in favor of the Holy Cross team.

Fencers win twice, lose twice on road

By Mark Tapeskred

The MIT fencers returned from their inter-season road trip to win two of their four meets, thus bringing their season record to 5-2-2. The fencers faced Brown Polytechnic and Dartmouth in New York, and were defeated by St. John's and Seton Hall.

The Brown Poly game was played in New York on Tuesday, February 6, and was a close one, with the Cagers winning by 15-10. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the Atlantic Garden, and the score was 15-10 in favor of the MIT team.

The Dartmouth game was played in Hanover,
New Hampshire, on Thursday, February 8,
and was another close one, with the Cagers
winning by 15-10. The game was played before
an audience of 1,500 fans at the Dartmouth Gymnasium, and the score was 15-10 in favor of the MIT team.

The home meeting with Seton Hall was played in New York on Tuesday, February 13, and was another close one, with the Cagers winning by 15-10. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the Seton Hall Gymnasium, and the score was 15-10 in favor of the MIT team.

The home meeting with St. John's was played in New York on Monday, February 19, and was another close one, with the Cagers winning by 15-10. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the St. John's Field House, and the score was 15-10 in favor of the MIT team.

Pool record broken

Swimmers top Bowdoin, Bryn.

The swimmers split their last two home meets in the pool season, losing to Bowdoin Polytechnic by a score of 122-120 on Friday, February 9, and winning against Bryn Mawr Polytechnic by a score of 156-100 on Saturday, February 10.

The Bowdoin Poly game was played in New York on Friday, February 9, and was a close one, with the Cagers losing by 122-120. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the Bowdoin Poly Gymnasium, and the score was 122-120 in favor of Bowdoin Poly.

The Bryn Mawr Poly game was played in New York on Saturday, February 10, and was another close one, with the Cagers winning by 156-100. The game was played before an audience of 2,000 fans at the Bryn Mawr Poly Gymnasium, and the score was 156-100 in favor of the MIT swimmers.

Medley team wins

In the low hurdles, Morris ran first place, basics fourth and Tom Jones '64 placed second. Morris also took second place honors in the pole vault, placing second behind the first one. Tech's sprints consisted of Harry confident, 1st, Dennis Brown '66 and Ross, took first place in that event with a 5:45.8.

In Wednesday's NEAAU Meet, Ross took first in the dash and fifth place in the high hurdles. Ross placed fifth in the dash and fourth place in the high hurdles. Ross completed his turn in the 5:45.8.

Martin in the 40-yard hurdles Kim Willy '66 took first place with a winning time of 5.41 seconds, while Brown Polytechnic's Ross ran in the hurdles with a total time of 22.21 inches, and the second place in the 40-yard dash.

The squash team lost to Brown Polytechnic, 8-2, and ended the season with a 5-3 record. The victories came against Amherst, 6-3, MIT, 5-2, and Wesleyan, 7-0, and the honor of Tech's winning 4-yard goal was grasped early on the MIT cage January 18.

Every Monday afternoon, the squashers played their matches against schools which were not regular indoor tennis opponents. This year, Tech played against four schools: Amherst, Wesleyan, Brown Polytechnic and the Cage. The MIT squash team was composed of Harry confident, 1st, Dennis Brown '66 and Ross, took first place in that event with a 5:45.8.

Martin in the 40-yard hurdles Kim Willy '66 took first place with a winning time of 5.41 seconds, while Brown Polytechnic's Ross ran in the hurdles with a total time of 22.21 inches, and the second place in the 40-yard dash.

The squash team lost to Brown Polytechnic, 8-2, and ended the season with a 5-3 record. The victories came against Amherst, 6-3, MIT, 5-2, and Wesleyan, 7-0, and the honor of Tech's winning 4-yard goal was grasped early on the MIT cage January 18.

Trackmen cop four firsts in MIT Invitational Meet

Trackmen capped off a busy interseason schedule by winning four events at the MIT Inside Track Meet held Saturday, February 10, at St. John's University. The meet was held in the new St. John's Field House, and the score was 44-44 in favor of MIT.

The next big high jump this year.

The next big high jump this year.

The next big high jump this year.

The next big high jump this year.