Squashmen win 1 of 3: Top tournament easily 6-3

By Mark Retland

The MIT varsity squash team had a rough week winning one match out of three. Amherst took down the aged 8-1 Wednesday, and the team beat Toronto 5-3 then lost to Williams 2-1 Saturday.

Wagner Williams ’65, was the only winner against Amherst, one of the tougher squads on the schedule.

After Captain Tomas Guillermo lost his match at number one with Tod Creutz ’65, Don Ward

’66, and Ken Cosney ’68. Despite this second impressive victory, the team’s national ranking will not improve.

The match against Williams was played shortly after the Toronto, which contributed to giving Williams, one of the top, nationally, an easy victory, as Ken Cosney was the only Tech winner.
