Learn ye all the truth

Recent interviews with the staff psychiatrists have convinced us that many Reamer readers have the wrong attitude toward this place here. We entered the modest, tasteful, Early Frederian office with the preconceived misconception that the perception of the Institution on augmentation of tuition was deception by confusion of the issue then at stake.

When we made this clear to the shrink, we were invited to recline on a comfortable chaise lounge to discuss the facts. Soon we were made to sleep by the gentle droning voice which made this place here "very sleepy" and "$1,700 is not enough." The rest of the Interview is not very clear in our mind, but we are convinced that this Institute is the best of all possible worlds, and that every day, in every way, it's getting better and better.

So we urge all our readers to rise up and remember that everyone has the privilege of spending his next ten years' earnings for his education. Remember, you might have been sent to Harvard.

Upside Downcomm

Institute reorganization progressing beyond belief

This week Downcomm discus-nized general reorganization of Institute politics, and came up with some pretty interesting results. It was a little complicated, but I will explain some of the more evident areas.

The new Reamer head will be the Great Overseeing Director, who, as chief executive officer, will work with the Central Committee, consisting of the President Chairman, Flo-ry Ed, and John Righteous Chairman, and the Chairman of the Corporation. It was felt that, for the purposes of communication, it was necessary to put the Chairman of the Cormittee; otherwise he might become independent of student govern-

It was the general opinion that the current committee of electing the Central Committee be left to the old Reamer Magazine. The ren Class next year, in order to assure students "a wholesome environment." Included are "Mar-nals," Democrats, Republicans, 7; Marxist revolutionaries, 11; Harvey's, 3; Ayn Rand, 707; One Worlds, 31.

72. More curriculum changes on the way: Talking to a Wel-ley Girl I and II, the roles of the id and ego, in order to assure students "a wholesome environment." Included are "Mar-nals," Democrats, Republicans, 7; Marxist revolutionaries, 11; Harvey's, 3; Ayn Rand, 707; One Worlds, 31.

73. The students aren't getting free soap any more, since the Institute has received a $13.2 million grant.
