30 years ago During our struggles here at the Institute with the mighty forces of Nature, Fate, and Cum, we have come to look upon our body as consisting of a machine which, if fed with gas and occasionally allowed to cool off for a while, keeps on working without further attention. We were therefore more surprised than worried when, a short time ago, we discovered our machine was slightly cut of order, and in need of being laid up in the repair shop... We had been told that the Infirmary was located on the third floor so we headed to the Infirmary, geography plagues on repairs or general service, Pricing policies vary, but the Patronage Refund is paid for all courses.
