Squad loses two matches; Drops shutouts to Navy, Princeton

By Marc Heddle

MIT's varsity squad extended its winless streak to five games as it was whitewashed by both Princeton and Navy last week, the team's overall record is now 3-8.

Undaunted Princeton handed the Tecnichmen a 9-0 defeat. Tom Cruise '86, in the number one position, was defeated 1-3 by Princeton's Savitch. Tom Guillermo '85 in the number two position and Ken Comer '86 in the number three position were the only other game-winners for Tech. Each lost his match by the score of 3-2. Don Ward '86 returned after a case of appendicitis but was defeated 6-3 by nationally ranked Frank Santowski.

The match at Navy was equally disastrous. Again, the Tecnichmen were defeated 9-0. Cruise lost his match 6-2, and Guillermo lost his 3-2. Ironically, the only MIT victory was a 2-0 decision by Manager Mike Graham '85 in a special exhibition match.
