Fencing season coming to close: Final home meet set for Friday

By Alan Cohen
In one of its last dual meets of the season Saturday, February 20, the MIT fencing team encountered Stevens Institute of Technology and should have returned home. They won 13-9.

The 13-9 win, for MIT, in the final contest of the known season, meant the end of the fencing competition for Stevens. MIT, at this time, leads all of the known fencing teams in the nation in the total number of wins.
