MIT second in math contest

A three-man team representing MIT has placed second in the annual William Lowell Putnam Mathematical Contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America.

The winning MIT team was comprised of Bruce Ashcroft '68, Michael Rolle '72, and Joel Spencer '68. Second place went to an award of $300 to the sponsoring school. The three team members...

Weekend of events sponsored by ISA

The International Student Association, located at 33 Garden Street, Cambridge, is sponsoring its Spring Dance. The event will be held on Saturday night at 9:00 in a semi-formal fashion, while a Bluegrass Band will be served Saturday evening at 7:00 p.m.

Teuber speaks at Tech Banquet

Gerry Teuber, chairman of the faculty of directors of the Tech, presented last year's board of directors with awards for the year. The awards were given for outstanding service...

Mathematical Contest sponsored by the Mathematics Association

The Mathematics Association of America, has to consider political, economic and social factors...as well as systems or individual components. At the highest levels, you may...

MIT, won individual honorable mentions in the contest.

The contest, designed for undergraduate students of mathematics, has in the form of a uniform examination administered by the various departments of mathematics. Last December 1...

Anderson, Martin awarded Harvard junior fellowships

Hans C. Anderson, MIT '62, has been elected along with seven other young scientists and scholars as a Junior Fellow in the Harvard University Society of Fellows. His election was announced yesterday by Harvard's President Nathan M. Pusey.

Hans, from Brooklyn, New York, is presently studying physical chemistry at the Harvard; he has finished his three-year fellowship, University of California at Berkley fifth.

Prof. Fane to speak on Project MAC

"Machine-augmented cognition" will be the topic at the next meeting of the MIT Student Branch of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, at 8:00 p.m. on the 15th floor conference room, 545 Technology Square.

Professor Robert M. Fano, director of project MAC, will be the speaker.

Mechanical Engineers

Be a member of the foremost design team in the graphic arts industry.

An excellent future awaits the man who has potential and the willingness to work hard to help us maintain our position as The World's Largest Mfr. of Newspaper & Magazine Printing Presses.

We want men who are willing to learn and prepare themselves for responsible positions in Conceptual Design, Technical Sales, Customer Engineering, Administration, Manufacturing.

Our company's rapid growth and long-term need for qualified technical personnel will provide many challenges for the man who knows what he wants and is willing to work for it.

Our representative will be on your campus March 15, 1965. Arrange an interview through the Placement Office or send a resume to:

Mr. John Boone
Employment Manager

The GOSS Company

A Div. of Mihle, Goss, and Dexter, Inc.

Chicago 50, Illinois

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Elsie's

Elsie & Henry Baumann
For the best Sandwiches to eat or to take out.

Famous Roast Beef Special

FAMOUS ROAST BEEF SPECIAL

10 serves the needs of Defense and the Federal Aviation Administration ...

Arrival of Hans Jaeger

As Junior Fellows, for three years beginning next fall, they will be free to use Harvard's laboratory, libraries, and other resources as they choose in their own fields of interest. Each receives the facilities necessary for his studies, plus a stipend of $3500 to $5500 each year.

The Fellowships are selected, according to Harvard, "with the ultimate purpose of promoting "plausible criterion of notable contribution to knowledge and thought,"..."