Spring Weekend

Plan dance, amusement park trip

Spring Weekend '65, MIT's Fourteen Dollar Fling on April 23-25, will begin Friday night with a semi-formal dance at the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Bradford in downtown Boston, according to Spring Weekend Chairman chairman, Dave Rubin.

The highlight of the weekend will be a trip to Canobie Lake Park in Salem, New Hampshire, leaving Boston about noon. Cano-bie Lake Park is an amusement park including roller coaster, ferriss wheel, merry-go-round, hot-rods, dodgem cars. Wild Mouse in a two man roller coaster that specializes in hairpin turns, fun house, octopus roller, penny arcade, and a swamp ride.

The park has a scenic lake, restaurant, restaurant stands, fried clams, pizza, and barbecue pits. Thus dinner can either be brought, purchased there or brought there. The many pine groves make ideal quiet spots for wandering.

For the afternoon's entertainment, a folk concert is planned on the baseball field. Good weather should make the field ideal.
A stage avoids the echo problems of the Great Court. Rock and roll entertainment will highlight the evening, in one of New England's largest summer ballrooms, overlooking the lake. The ballroom is larger than the Hampton Beach Casino, site of last year's Saturday night entertainment. It can also be used for the afternoon concert in case of inclement weather.
Most of the rides are well protected from bad weather as well.

The weekend ticket price is $4.
No tax rental is necessary for Friday nights semi-formal dance and Saturday night at the park minimizes dinner costs. Admission to the park will, of course, be free, and tickets will be available at a 35% discount, which comes out to 12.94 cents a ride.
For those who want something to supplement the evening con-ton, there is a roller skating rink on the premises, for only 60 cents. The map at the bottom of the page shows Canobie Lake Park, except the ferris wheel and Wild Mouse. The bowling alley and boat rides will not be open at the time of the weekend.

Free formal invitations will be available March 17 in the lobby of the Great Court. Rock and roll
end of the weekend.

The guests of honor will be MIT Vice-President James B. McCormack, Dean of Residence Frederick G. Fassett, and Burton House-master David C. White, Professor of Electrical Engineering.

Entertainment will include the Legsband, an MIT singing group, and the Westover Air Force Band, visiting from Springfield, Massachusetts.

ASIS announces job possibilities for European travel in new book

The American Student Information Service, with headquarters in Luxembourg, announced that there are still more than 20,000 summer jobs available in Europe to United States college students. The jobs are being filled on a first come, first served basis and the ASIS is granting a $10 travel grant to each of the first 5,000 applicants.

Some positions pay $600 a month with no previous experience or foreign language ability required.
Room and board are often included. The most requested jobs are resort work, office work, lifeguard-ing, sales work, shipboard work, factory work, child care and camp counseling work, farm work and restaurant work. Some well-to-do Europeans offer guest privileges in return for teaching their children English.

Many of the job and travel grant opportunities are described in a booklet obtainable from ASIS headquarters. The cost of the booklet to include postage and handing is $3, and the address is Dept.
IV, ASIS, 22 Ave. de la Liberté, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.
