55 per cent fail quiz

By Bob Horvitz

35 Years Ago

At a recent quiz in Freedman dorm, 50 per cent of the class failed. This presents an unusual number of physical breakdancers (or, note—the times they aren't painless, etc.).

"I think I shall omit the last lecture," said Prof. F.—during a subsequent class.

Our study of supply and demand curves showed that $1.00 would be the ideal ticket price," explained Charles H. Wales, G., chairman of the Christmas Dance Committee last night.

Because of the fact that the four hundred and thirty-five members of last March's Tech for Friday won't be making the trip to the dance, the "Friday the Thirteenth," the members of The Fingers for The Tech for Friday won't be.
