Carl Weisssgerber wins EIC badminton tourney

By Mark Wallace
At Queen's College in New York City, on Saturday, March 27, an MTT student captured the men's singles Eastern Inter-collegiate Badminton Tournament championship. Unseeded Carl Weisssgerber, '68, pulled the upset of the day by overcoming three strong players to take the title.

In the quarter-finals, Carl eliminated Bill Smith of Syracuse University, 15-3, 15-11. He then had his closest match of the day with second-seeded Terry Green of The Principia College in Illinois. Carl was the first 13 points in what looked to be a runaway, but Greene suddenly reversed form, and he took 13 points to tie the score. Greene chose a 5 of 9 play-off which he lost, ending the game at 18-17.

Easy win in finals
After dispensing of Greene, 15-8, in the second game, Carl met Pete Trafton of Tufts University in the finals. Trafton was exhausted after the long day's competition and Weisssgerber, though tired himself, was able to put Trafton out in 15-5, 15-3, to secure the championship.

In the men's doubles, Carl was paired with a Howard University student, whom Trafton had eliminated in the other singles semi-final. They advanced easily to the semi-finals, where they beat a UConn team, 15-3, 15-4. Still opposition from Greene and Trafton proved too much, however, as that pair won the finals in 15-12, 11-12 games.

Baseball team falls twice to WPI; Jack Mazola outstanding in loss
By Ron Modosetter
MIT's baseball team continued having its troubles last week as it lost twice to WPI and had a scheduled game with Bates rained out. The real difference in the two games was that WPI was able to combine what few hits they got with two-out innings to produce runs, while the Techmen were unable to break their hits. Tech jumped out to a quick 1-0 lead in the first game. Leedholfman Ron Kadomiya '67 walked, and scored on a single by Jack Mazola '66. The one-run lead held until the third inning. WPI combined three hits with three hits by three Tech errors.

A passed ball, and a wild pitch for three runs.
With two out in the sixth, consecutive singles from Erik Jensen '67, Ted Bailey '66, and Ben Gibbs '66, Jensen was thrown out trying to score. Trafton's ground out ending the inning. Tech mounted one more threat and WPI won the game 3-1. Mazola, the batter, pitched, in an outstanding performance, splitting two four-outs, and allowing only four hits. The second game was a complete winners' singles to register singles Rick Papenhausen '65, Ralph Clewes '66, and Rick Gander '65. WPI merely converted them into runs, while collecting only four hits. MIT, on the other hand, got a man past second and could almost earn two but hits—singles by Kadomiya in the first and Jensen in the 6th. The 6-0 victory was the firstPyat by Jensen in weeks.
