Kelly donates rare books

Dr. James R. Killian, Chairman of the MIT Corporation (above, left) and Professor William L. Locke chat with J. Austin Kelly III, '26 (above right), who recently donated 15 rare scientific books to the Institute. At right is a reproduction of a page from Newton's 'Mathematical Principles of Natural Philosophy,' published in 1729.

Earth's core subject of Compass Seminar

"Free Hydrodynamic Oscillations of the Earth's Core" will be the subject of a Compass Seminar to be presented by Professor Raymond Hide of the MIT Department of Geology and Geophysics, and the Department of Physics.

The discussion will begin at 4:30 pm Tuesday, in Room 54-106. Tea will be served in the Faculty Lounge, Room 54-303, at 3:30 pm.

Mother's Day Cards and Gifts

Mother's Day is next Sunday, May 9. It is enough to remind you that she deserves the best and to tell you that The Coop has an excellent selection of cards from the best makers. To add a little extra to this day, you may wish to send a small gift . . . one that will add measurably to your thoughtfulness, and results in much appreciation.
